January 2017 From the Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

New Years is here once again. The month of January, at least for me, is a month of reminders. At this time every year I am reminded that my birthday is coming up and exactly how much time has passed since I have been on this earth. Because I'm a creature of habit, this is the time of year when I have the most trouble writing the date on various documents. I have to constantly remind myself to write the number for the new year instead of writing the one I had been writing for the past twelve months. I personally don't believe in New Year's resolutions because I think we should strive to be the best version of ourselves all year long, but the new year does serve as a reminder to reaffirm our goals such as volunteering our time in the service of others, visiting the sick and homebound, and sharing love and compassion with others every day. So let the New Year remind you of why you are part of our wonderful organization and what core values that we should all be adhering to all year long, not just conjuring up a resolution because the secular world says so. With this in mind we must remember the values that we are fighting for and not forget what we have already accomplished.

Fraternally Yours, Lee

Chaplain's Message

Keeping Christ in Christmas and the New Year

By

Father Anthony J. Legarski, Chaplain

Brother Knights:

"Keep Christ in Christmas." I have always been moved by this simple expression and the challenge it poses to our society on the part of the Knights of Columbus. It is the most succinct expression of what we are about not only as Knights, but especially as Christians.

As we begin another New Year, we would do well to give thought to how we can keep Christ alive and present in our lives and in the lives of others throughout the entire New Year. We never cease to be his disciples. We can never allow an opportunity to witness to Christ and his love to pass us by. We should strive to be vigilant for Christ every day, all through the year.

Keeping Christ in the New Year can be achieved in several ways, but it must begin within ourselves. We can commit ourselves to a more fervent prayer life. Spending more time in prayer and before the Blessed Sacrament, when possible is an excellent place to start. We can also set as one of our goals a deeper sense of stewardship—the giving of time, talent, and treasure to God, his Church, and his people. Obviously, the seeds of this initiative have already been planted in our lives as Knights. The challenge in the New Year for us is to provide the ways and means for them to grow and bear more fruit.

We can also open ourselves up to deeper appreciation of and reflection upon God's Word and the lives of the saints. We can also commit ourselves to imitating the lives of the saints more faithfully. And of course, we can cultivate a deeper devotion to Mary, the Mother of God.

In all of this, we progress more and more in the life Christ calls us to live and make him a more integral part of the daily lives we live in what is now the New Year.

It is my sincere hope and prayer that all of you, my brother Knights, and your loved ones will experience a New Year filled with love, happiness, peace, good health, and many blessings. As we struggle throughout the New Year to keep Christ present each and every day, we must remember to ask the help and powerful intercession of His mother and our patroness: Mary, Star of the Sea.
