November 2019 From the Grand Knight

Brother Knights

November is approaching. It is a time to set our clocks back and a time to look forward to Thanksgiving. What are you thankful for this year? I am thankful for my family and all my brother Knights.

Our parish chicken bbq was a great success. Hopefully we can provide for them again in the near future. Keep in mind our next chicken bbq will be held in December. Proceeds will benefit the St. Vincent DePaul society. Think about donating some of your time for this worthy cause.

We are going to have trick or treat at our council home this year. We will be joining the Mattern House for this event to be held from 6 to 8, October 31st, at the council home. We are still looking for donations or some type of treat to hand out. Drop all donations off at the council home.

Paul Detwiler has informed me his worked schedule has changed and he will no longer be able to provide his time to pick up ham and cheese orders. We need another volunteer to take over these duties. Contact either Ray Gregorchik or Tim Surkovich for further details.

Fun Fact:
George Herman Ruth better known as Babe Ruth was a member of the Knights of Columbus. He joined the order in 1919. He often visited orphanages, schools, and hospitals.

Fraternally yours,
Ray

Chaplain's Message

Who Is Your Saint?

By
Father Anthony J. Legarski,
Chaplain

On my first active duty assignment as a U.S. Navy Chaplain I was stationed at Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois. Part of my collateral duties was to help cover the Catholic Program in nearby Navy Housing. The Catholic Priest assigned to base chapel was on leave and that put me in charge.

A couple of weeks prior to Halloween, some service member families approached me for a Halloween Party in the chapel social hall. They wanted the children to be able to dress up, go Trick or Treating in Housing, and return to the hall for a party. I would not allow demonical figures (real or mythical) and the dark side of Halloween to be celebrated as such in the confines of the Chapel area. When I conveyed this to the families, one of the wives contacted me and asked if they could have it there if the children dressed up like saints—each of them. What a marvelous idea, I thought! I allowed the function to continue under those conditions and it was a very creative and theologically filled event. It took place on Halloween Night (the eve of All Saints Day). We started with a Mass for All Saints Day, they went trick or treating, and then they had their party.

That is precisely what the month of November is all about, beginning with Halloween. It is for the Church a time to contemplate, venerate and celebrate the Communion of Saints. It is a time to reflect upon the life to come in a good a positive way. To build an awareness within ourselves of Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory. It is a time to offer prayers for the souls of the faithful departed.

Perhaps in doing so, we can ask ourselves what saint we would like to model, research the person, pray for his/her intercession. Perhaps it is our namesake. Perhaps it the Saint whose name we chose at Confirmation; or perhaps, it is time to look even further at the Communion of Saints as adults and as Knights of Columbus to still another saint that embodies what we would like to become on our pilgrimage to the Kingdom of Heaven.

The children I mentioned in this article dressed up as saints on the outside. We are called to do so on the inside, in the depths of our souls. Who is your saint at this point in your life? Who is it that calls us to follow Christ as they did in their earthly life? Perhaps a good place to start would be the Queen of Saints and our patroness—Mary, Star of the Sea.

The theme for October is “Real Life Stories.”

A field agent like me who is lucky enough to be doing this great work for even a few years, undoubtedly has a personal story of the chaos and disorder that a devastated family stares at when there is a sudden loss. If our goal is to protect Catholic families from the near devastation that our Venerable founder faced, then I have to tell the story of how I can help my brother knights. The process of making sure one has adequate protection for the family is not painful; in fact since we are brother knights serving brother knights, it is often a time of not only helping to protect all that is important to a family, but also a shared experience that leads to an abiding friendship.

There are two stories I'd like to relate.

The first is about a young boy named Julius. When Julius was 7 years old his mother, Irene, who was 37, died of cancer. His father, Norman, had two teenage girls along with 7 year old Julius to support and raise. The family was forced to rely on the help and generosity of friends and relatives because Irene died without life insurance. Norman had a three hour commute to his job, but always supported his children's activities. Julius excelled at sports, especially football and his dad spent what little free time he had fostering Julius and his talent. Julius later admitted that he “was handed a life lesson early, growing up with one parent. It wasn't the easiest life—my dad sacrificed a lot.”

Fast forward to Julius some 30 years later and he is married, has a wife and two children. He's done quite well for himself both professionally and financially. He has had a distinguished career and he has a considerable amount of life insurance to protect his family. Julius understands protection quite well after the early life he experienced. He understands the hardships of a family that loses a parent and what the children must go through. In his professional life he enjoyed considerable success because of those that protected him.

For 13 years he was protected in his career. You see that protection for Julius came in the form of 300 pound offensive linemen...nobody called him Julius. His nickname was “Boomer”... Boomer Esiason—a four time Pro Bowler, an NFL Most Valuable Player and a Walter Peyton NFL Man of the Year. Most importantly, a husband to Cheryl and a father to Sydney and Gunnar.

“Life happens at the most unexpected of times, and life insurance is about protecting the future and the people you love,” Boomer says. “Remember, if something happens and you haven't done the planning, the people you leave behind will feel the brunt of your mistakes.”

The other story is not similar at all. It's about a member of the Knights of Columbus in our local area. He passed away recently and like in Boomer's family, left behind a spouse and several young children. There were no whispered worries at the funeral home though. There was no GoFundMe page to raise money. There is no concern that the children will not go to college or that the wedding he promised his daughter will not take place. Their home and future are secure. Who was that knight? You don't know, because the council didn't have to have a spaghetti dinner or pass the hat. You don't know his name because he planned.

Let's sit down, do some planning, put your mind at ease, and make sure your loved ones won't feel the brunt of your mistakes.

Vivat Jesus!
