WE ARE CALLED TO BE GOOD SHEPHERDS

Jesus knew there could be both good and bad shepherds. He knew well that there were many who would lead people to satisfy their shepherds own needs. After the shepherd's need was met, the sheep came to understand how they had been used and misled and then became scattered.

Jesus wanted to send his people good shepherds, that would reach out to those who were far off and bring them close once again. He wanted his shepherds to help break the "barrier of hostility" that kept people apart. He wanted his people to live as sisters and brothers to one another.

In order to be good shepherds we need to strike a balance in our lives. We need to work, that's for sure. We also need to take time to pray ... and to rest. It's hard for us to constantly be on the run. Many times we work very hard for things that won't last anyway. Life is much more full and enjoyable when we determine the things that will be lasting and work for them.

Jesus and his disciples knew what would last. They worked so hard to build up the Kingdom of God. Like us, they grew tired.

It was time for rest and time for prayer. But it wasn't that simple. People were coming and going in great numbers, so Jesus and his apostles went off in a boat by themselves to a deserted place. But when they got there another vast crowd awaited. In our lives we need to strike a balance between work and rest. We need to work for what will last. We won't always be able to make the schedule. Even when we're too busy, we'll be asked to do more. Often we'll need to respond to the needs around us, even when we have needs of our own. And Jesus will shepherd us. Jesus will refresh us. Jesus will lead us on to green pastures. We're not in it alone. God cares, and God will help.

We can respond to the many needs around us knowing that God can work through us in wonderful ways. We can seek to find abalance in our lives. We can be aware too, that the needs of those around us will often require us to respond even when it is inconvenient to do so. We use the strength we receive in the Eucharist to love and serve the Lord in wonderful ways.

Viva Jesus

Deacon Norm

Words from the Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

I am not usually at a loss for words. But since you since you elected me Grand Knight, I have had a tough time deciding what I want to say for my opening Message to you.

I finally settled on this: All Knights are leaders. It does not matter whether you are an officeholder in our council. The members of our parishes, our fellow Catholic Christians, and even our communities at large look up to us as examples of how Catholic Christian men should conduct themselves. We hold ourselves to high standards, and we are admired for it.

There is a line from the song "Stouthearted Men": "The strong obey when a strong man shows them the way." Let us remember that by setting high standards for ourselves, we are leading.

Vivat Jesus!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
INSURANCE
Your Shield for Life

LIFE INSURANCE AS A GIFT?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. "How morbid," they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times. The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you're alive. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It's a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.

Vivat Jesus!

SMILE FOR YOU

Smiling is infectious; you catch it like the flu,
When someone smiled at me today, I started smiling too.
I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin
When he smiled I realized I'd passed it on to him.
I thought about that smile then I realized its worth,
A single smile, just like mine could travel round the earth.
So, if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected
Let's start and epidemic quick, and get the world infected!

Keep the smile going by sending this on to a friend.
Everyone needs a smile!!!
