Chaplain's Corner

We have already seen how there were certain great milestones in the life of Jesus and his temptation is one of the greatest. In the Temple when he was twelve He came to the realization that God was his Father in a unique way. In the emergence of John, the hour had struck and in his baptism by John God's approval was given. At this time of the temptation Jesus was about to begin his campaign. Before anyone begins a campaign they must choose their methods or operation. The temptation story shows us that Jesus choose once and for all the method by which he proposed to win men to God. It shows him rejecting the way of power and glory and accepting the way of suffering and the cross.

So how does this apply to us?

Imagine a courtroom scene where the defense lawyer gives his final argument. As a member of the jury, you may be convinced that the defendant is guilty, but the way the lawyer's words are well crafted and appeal to your emotions, you have your doubts. So what do you do? Well you go back to the truth—the evidence—and reexamine it in your mind.

To our natural minds, Satan can be very cunning in his attempts to take our eyes off the truth of who God is.

- He entices us to doubt that God will provide for us and for our families.
- He tries to convince us that we will get by only if we do some creative accounting" on our taxes.
- He entices us to pursue work to the exclusion of our family's well-being.
- He tells us we will be happy only if only we have the newest gadget or pick up more and more attention from our peers.

The problem is that Satan is the father of lies.

- He may not openly forbid us to worship God, but he will distract us and try to tempt us when we go to pray or read Scripture.
- When we are sick, he will quietly mock God and tell us that God will not help us.
- When we sin, he will hint that the Father won't forgive us, or try to convince us that we will never change.

You know, every day we are engaged in a battle. This is between good and evil in very subtle ways.

Jesus may have won the victory through his cross, but it's still up to us to embrace his victory by accepting Jesus into our lives. Like the juror who was temporarily swayed by the smooth-talking lawyer, we can look to God's word and hold up his truths against the lies of the evil one.

In closing,

(Ephesians 6:13) says:

"therefore, put on the armor of God, that you may be able to resist on the evil day and, having done everything, to hold your ground."

Viva Jesus

Deacon Norm

Saturday February 23, 2019 4th Degree exemplification of Grand Knight Ken Williams to Sir Knight Ken Williams. In attendance with Bruce Spindler, Gerry Glxatt and Jason Krampfen

Words from the Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

This March brings Lent, and many Catholics traditionally give up something they enjoy during this period to prepare for the Easter season. Yet just about every pastor I have had has recommended that instead of (or in conjunction with) self-denial, we should humble ourselves during Lent by doing service to others.

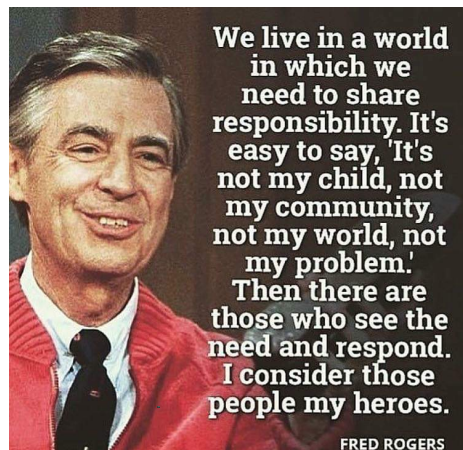

As Knights, we have ample opportunity for service; after all, that is what our order is all about. The Supreme Council's Faith in Action (FIA) program asks us to do service in one of four areas: Faith, Family, Community, and Life. It does not take much thinking to find a service project that could fit one of those categories.

As you start your Lenten journey this year, think about a service project that you could do that fits one of those four categories – then do it. And don't be shy about telling your brother Knights what you are doing; someone might want to join you in service.

Vivat Jesus!

25 AMAZING THINGS TOO MANY CATHOLICS
DON'T KNOW ABOUT THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

By: Andrew Butlar, August 3, 2018 (Church POP)

(1) It all started when a parish priest wanted to help Catholic families.

The year was 1882 and anti-Catholic sentiment was running high. Catholic immigrants faced hostility and were thrown into dangerous work conditions which could cause early deaths. So 29-year-old Father Michael McGivney gathered the men of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn., to establish a lay organization.

The goal? To unite men of Catholic faith and provide for the families of deceased members.

(2) The Order is the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization.

Today, with nearly 2 million members worldwide, the Order is still true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity.

(3) The Knights have councils in over a dozen countries.

Knights are active in the U.S., Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, Dominican Republic, Poland, Panama, Guatemala, Lithuania, Bahamas, Saint Lucia, South Korea, Ukraine and more!

(4) The Knights stood up to ISIS.

The Order produced a 280-page report detailing the genocide against Christians by ISIS, which was decisive in getting the genocide recognized by the U.S. State Department

(5) The Knights are saving a Christian town in Iraq that was desecrated by ISIS.

They are raising $2 million to save Karamles, a town recently liberated from ISIS.

(6) Columbus was chosen as the Knights' namesake because...

...the American public loved this famous Catholic explorer at a time of general antipathy towards Catholics. Today, many make him out to be a villain, but many of those claims are actually historically inaccurate.

(7) The K of C emblem is literally everywhere at the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C.

That's because the Knights are one of the major supporters of the March for Life and the pro-life movement.

(8) K of C has donated $1.62 billion (yes, billion!) to charitable causes over the past decade.

As of December 2017!

(9) They have swords!

Maybe the most important point

(10) The Knights of Columbus Fortune 1000 Insurance Company was born out of Father McGivney's vision to help protect Catholic families from financial ruin.

(11) K of C founder Father McGivney may become a saint.

His cause for canonization is open, and he was given the title "Venerable Servant of God" by the Holy See in 2008.

(12) Oh, and some Knights are already saints

St. Luis Batis, St. Rodrigo Aguilar, St. Miguel de la Mora, St. Pedro de Jesús Maldonado, St. José María Robles and St. Mateo Correa were martyred during the persecution of Catholics in Mexico in the early 20th century.

(13) At the peak of the Ku Klux Klan's power, the K of C stood as its most vigorous opponent.

In one incident in 1924, hooded Klansmen abducted, severely beat and mutilated Father John Conoley in Gainesville, Fla. Knights armed with shotguns stood in the windows of the rectory, protecting another priest and the church itself from the Klan's threats to burn it.

(14) The Knights have been a huge supporter of the Special Olympics since day one.

(15) Babe Ruth, Vince Lombardi, and President John F. Kennedy were all members of the Knights.

(16) Ever wonder how the words "under God" became part of the Pledge of Allegiance?

We can thank the K of C for that.

(7) They have a long history with Mother Teresa.

Upon receiving the Knights' Gaudium et Spes Award she said, "I accepted to come, and to accept out of sheer gratitude, for they have done so much for our congregation and for our poor."

(18) They're a major supporter of vocations.

K of C councils "adopt" one or more seminarians and provide them with financial assistance and prayer through the RSVP program.

(19) Knights of Columbus has an investments business called Asset Advisors.

K of C's investment team manages approximately $24 billion in assets in accordance with Catholic moral principles.

(20) Both the first American and the last American to fall in World War I were Knights of Columbus.

The annual College Councils Conference is held in New Haven each fall.

(21) They have a long tradition of supporting the military.

This year, the Knights sent more than 200 military personnel, their designated caregivers and volunteers to the Marian shrine in Lourdes, France, for a time of rest, prayer and healing as part of the annual Warriors to Lourdes pilgrimage.

(22) The Saint John Paul II National Shrine is a major initiative of the K of C.

The shrine has a first-class relic of JPPII's blood, and it is a great place to venerate the saint and remember his legacy.

(23) There are 374 (and growing!) K of C councils on college campuses around the world.

The annual College Councils Conference is held in New Haven each fall.

(24) The Knights are on a mission to save 1 million lives.

Little is more moving than seeing an image of a baby growing in the womb. Since 2009, the Knights have funded about 900 ultrasound machines at pregnancy care centers in all 50 states.

(25) With the new Online Membership program, joining the Knights is easier than ever.

Practicing Catholic men 18 years of age and older can join at KofC.org/JoinUs.
