Happy Holidays? by Jim Manney

I often flinch inside when someone wishes me “happy holidays.” “What’s wrong with saying ‘Merry Christmas?’” says the annoyed inner voice. Nothing, of course, but nevertheless I’m trying to get over my flinching.

Hardly anybody who says “happy holidays” does so out of disrespect for the Christian feast. They do it out of politeness. There are some people who might receive Christmas greetings uncomfortably, and a tiny handful who are actively hostile to Christianity. But rarely do the people who say “happy holidays” feel this way. They want to express good will without offending anyone. Who can complain about that?

But Christians do complain. I complain. This troubles me. For one thing, it’s an egocentric complaint. It boils down to grumbling that people (society, the culture, “them”) don’t see Christmas the same way I do. That’s largely true; they don’t. But they have some positive idea about the season. It involves good cheer, human warmth, and celebration. Happy holidays. It’s something to respect, not grumble about.

After all, the reason why people think about being generous, enjoying their families, and doing things better in the new year is because Christ has come into the world. The babe of Bethlehem changed everything. Salvation has come. We can hope for something better. The holly and the sleigh bells, the lights on the house and Santa on the porch, Bing Crosby singing “White Christmas” and friends wishing you “Happy Holidays”—all this says that Christ has come. We can find him everywhere. It’s easy to see him at this time of year.

Insurance Check-Up for 2010

Can you believe it will soon be 2010? I hope that 2009 was a healthy, prosperous year for you and your family. As we review the past year and prepare to welcome a new one, we wonder where the time goes.

If you’re like most people, you’ve made some resolutions for 2010. I’d like to make two suggestions regarding your resolutions. First, write them down. A resolution is really a goal for the year and, until you commit a goal to writing, it’s nothing more than a wish. Writing a resolution down is the first step towards achieving it.

Second, schedule some time to visit with me, your professional Knights of Columbus insurance agent. The “insurance check-up” that I’ll provide (free of charge, by the way!) will quickly identify any gaps in your family’s life insurance, long term care or financial programs. Unlike many other products, you need more than money to obtain life insurance or long term care insurance. You also need good health and no one will ring a bell warning you when your health is about to change!!!

Our Knights of Columbus life insurance and annuities also offers something precious that few financial products can – guarantees. The proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind and that’s (as they say in the credit card commercials) priceless!!!

I’m at 952-513-8784 or aaron.jelinek@kofc.org. Call me – I’m happy to help!

Grand Knight’s Message by Bill Lawrence

Greeting Brother Knights

Hard to imagine that 2009 is over and that I have reached the halfway point in my term as Grand Knight. What a year 2009 has turned out to be. Council Number 945 has donated thousands of hours to our church and community, thousands of dollars to those in need, delivered programs that have enhanced youth and family, and recruited a few new Knights along the way. What a difference a year can make.

And as busy as the last six months were, the next six months will seem even busier. We start right up with the Free Throw Championship, then a Poster Contest, the Chili Cook-Off, Lenten Fish Dinners, Spaghetti Suppers, the Night of Knights Auction, the Tootsie Roll Drive, Smokin’ in Steele, a few more Benefit Breakfasts...and let’s not forget recruitment....

A special thank you goes to Russ Bowar for continuing the Richard Rower tradition of the Christmas Party for the developmentally disabled. Another special thank you goes to Tom Docksey who coordinated the Knights participation in the Salvation Army Red Kettle Drive. And, finally, special thanks goes to all who made the KC Extravaganza a success...from Frank Conley, Al Nelson, LaVerne Klecker, the KC Chorus, Santa and his elf Brian Fisher, as well as all the volunteers too numerous to mention in this column. Finally, big thanks to Mark Cunningham and his staff who go out of their way to make the KC Hall a special place all year long.

Happy New Year & Vivat Jesus!

"What a wonderful family event!"

"What a wonderful family event!" was typical of the many favorable comments heard throughout the morning at the KC Christmas Holiday Breakfast Extravaganza held at St. Mary's School on December 13. This is another example of the excellent family oriented activities sponsored by Council 945. We often remind prospective members that our activities provide more family time and not less.

The morning included great food, Santa with treats and pictures with the families, and Christmas carols by the KC Chorus. Thanks to Brian Fisher for his Santa work.

Lavern Soukup, long-time breakfast team member, remarked, "This breakfast is certainly a fine opportunity for families to have a great meal, enjoy beautiful Christmas music, and then visit with family and friends. It is just a nice atmosphere."

Thanks to LaVerne Klecker for again organizing the advance ticket sales team and their successful sales effort. LaVerne has always emphasized the importance of advance ticket sales to the success of a breakfast.

Brian Carlson kept the dining room activity moving. Special thanks to the leaders and scouts from Boy Scout Troup 253 for their excellent work in the dining room. In spite of the late request, they responded perfectly. They were, leaders: Dennis Von Ruden, Col. Matejack, Randy Balausky, and Mark Kearin. Scouts: Landon Von Ruden, Casey Balausky, and Joe Kearin.

We appreciate the KC Chorus spreading the Holiday spirit by caroling at Morehouse Place, Infinia, the Fourth Degree Christmas Party, and this breakfast. Make plans now for St. Mary's REP & CYO breakfast on January 10.

The colorful dining room was busy all morning with families enjoying fellowship, food, music, and Santa.

Santa took a short break from his visiting duties to sing and dance with the KC Chorus.

There were many great family pictures with Santa.

Bell Ringers Exemplify Principles of the Order

On December 12th, members of Council 945 joined together to cover the bell ringing duties at all seven locations in Owatonna for the Salvation Army's Red Kettle Drive. As a reminder the principles of the order are: Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

Charity was very evident as the bell ringers collected money from the busy Christmas shoppers. This money goes to help the less fortunate with food, clothing and housing. These funds are also available in case of a disaster such as a fire or flood.

Unity. Without it, the program would not have been a success. It took a minimum of 56 individuals ... knights and family members, to cover all the locations around town.

Fraternity. The bell ringers worked in teams and there was certainly fraternity as they worked together and enjoyed spreading Christmas spirit to everyone who passed by. They also took turns to be sure that there was sufficient break time to warm up and rest a bit during the 3 hour shifts, some of which were spent outdoors.

Patriotism. While 87% of the funds collected stays in Owatonna, the Salvation Army is there to help anyone in need in this great Nation of ours, without discrimination.

A big thanks to those Knights and their family members who helped ring the bells on December 12. If we missed anyone, please accept our apologies and know that your help was appreciated:

Knight of the Month

Randy Balausky

Council 945's Knight of the Month for November is Randy Balausky. The announcement was made at the regular December Council meeting by Grand Knight, Bill Lawrence.

Randy was born in Cleveland, Ohio and grew up in Willoughby, Ohio. He joined the KCs on November 23, 2003. When asked about his favorite KC projects, he mentioned two; working at the benefit breakfasts and the brat stand at the Steele County Free Fair. He presently serves as the Chancellor of our Council.

He earned a Bachelor of Science in Recreational Studies at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio where he majored in recreational management. He later received his Masters in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix in Phoenix, Arizona. He is employed at Emerson Network Power in Waseca, where he works as a production supervisor in the fiber optics division.

Randy, and his wife of 17 years, Tammy, are members of Sacred Heart Parish and they have three children; Chris, Allie and Casey. Tammy is a Martha and Randy serves on the building committee at their parish.

When asked about his other interests, Randy said, "I am really into Scouting. I am an Eagle Scout and have been involved in the Boy Scouts since I was a Cub Scout in grade school." He presently serves as the Scout Master for the KC sponsored, Troop 253. He is also into scuba diving and of course, as a boy scout it's a natural that he loves camping.

One big accomplishment of the Balausky family this summer was the achieving of their goal to travel to all of the 48 contiguous states in their recreational vehicle before the 2 youngest children graduated from high school.

Congratulation to Randy Balausky, our November Knight of the Month!

Father McCauley Honored With Exemplification

Council 945 hosted an exemplification on November 21 honoring Fr. James McCauley. Forty-two candidates were exemplified into full knighthood by completing their third degree. The new knights received special certificates marking the occasion and they, in turn, signed a commemorative certificate which was presented to Fr. McCauley. Grand Knight Bill Lawrence commented, "It is very appropriate that we honor Fr. McCauley with the Knights of Columbus proclaiming this fraternal year, The Year of the Priest."

McCauley served the Parish Church of St. Joseph from 1984 to 1991. He also served as Chaplain for Council 945. A native of Caledonia, Minnesota, he was ordained into the priesthood in 1956 after receiving his theological training at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Fr. McCauley presently resides in Brownsville, Minnesota, and is recovering from a stroke he suffered in 2007.

Candidates came from all over Southern Minnesota to participate in the exemplification. There were 13 candidates who completed their third degree to become knights in the Owatonna Council. Columbian Center Manager, Mark Cunningham, had this to say, "I have been working here for 25 years and this is, by far, the largest exemplification that I have ever witnessed."

Council #945 is currently looking for a Knight in good standing to fill the Gambling Manager position. Candidates should have some background in accounting or bookkeeping, have attention to detail, and is able to complete reports timely and accurately. Interested candidates should send a letter of interest to either Mark Cunningham at the KC Hall, 820 S. Elm Ave. or Bill Lawrence at 1044 Rolling Green Drive; both in Owatonna, MN 55060.
