The Spirit of the Season

St. Francis of Assisi is often quoted as having said "Preach the Gospel at all times, and when necessary, use words." This is especially true when it comes to the Lenten season. The words on our lips often do not match what is in our heart or, for that matter, what is on our faces as they should! 528008

So what penance will you do for Lent this year? Will you give up chocolate? It's so easy to do, you have done that since you were six! Will you go on a weight loss diet? This is a good penance if you want to have that hollow gaunt look of a petitioner in sack cloth. Or perhaps you will exercise, in pursuit of showing exactly what you did with those forty days and secretly creating muscle tone while beating your chest with "mea culpas"?

Or are you ready to really open your mind and heart and listen to what Jesus would have you do? Might he ask you to fast from gossip, or abstain from the prejudice you carry against your neighbor because of the color of his/her skin or his station in life? Does the Lord long for this time together, so that you give attention to Him and to your children, your aging parents, or maybe even that single mom down the block?

In the Gospel, Christ asks us to create true change in ourselves and others, especially if we have been fasting from a truly Christian life during the rest of the year. How can we use this Lent as a time to effect good in the world around us? How can we leave our love poured out as He did His? In the Gospel, Christ asks us to create true change in ourselves and others, especially if we have been fasting from a truly Christian life during the rest of the year. How can we use this Lent as a time to effect good in the world around us? How can we leave our love poured out as He did His? "Moving forward" rather than "abstaining from," may help us to experience the pure joy of the Resurrection when the great feast day finally arrives!

Living the beatitudes; practicing a moral life; advocating for social justice; protecting those who cannot protect themselves; and feeding the poor and hungry are all part of the way of the Lord. Prayer for those we consider our enemies and kindness to those whom we see as strangers are part of the radical message of Jesus.

And so we pray: Let us fill our hearts with the message of the Gospel and practice what Jesus teaches us, so that, in turn, when we teach about Jesus, the Christ, the words we use, if, as St. Francis says, we need words at all, are full of the love and conviction of a true follower of the Word.

May this Lent be a time graced with the ability to know true love for our brothers and sisters, in the footsteps of the Master, and may we, as teachers of the faith, be able to articulate Christ's love in words and by example.

Grand Knight's Message by Wade Schroeder

As our Minnesota winter drags on... and off... and on again, it seems we are finally beginning the end of the winter season. I read that the ground hog did not see his shadow so maybe we will be into spring before we know it... I know I won't miss the ice and shoveling. 2208529

Seasons are an important part of our Minnesota lives. I know when I was in the Marine Corps; I was stationed in Twenty Nine Palms, California, for three years. If you are unaware of where this lovely Garden of Eden is the Marine Corps decided to make a Live fire base, it is located in the heart of the Mojave Desert in central California. Better known as "Twenty Nine Stumps" because they have a hard time even getting palm trees to grow because of the heat, this part of California only has two seasons... hot and hotter. I have to admit that even I started to miss winter after a couple years living there.

Seasons are an important part of our lives, our faith, and even our church. As I get older, I can more readily recognize the seasons of my own life; from the frivolity of my youth to my current age there have been some changes in who I am, both in my inwardly and in my outward appearance... Sticking with the seasonal analogy, besides covering slightly more personal real estate than I used to, I have lost my leaves for example... In our faith, we are currently entering the Easter season when we will celebrate Christ's unselfish act of offering his life for our sins. Each year, the church annually celebrates, Palm Sunday, Christmas, Ash Wednesday, Easter, etc., all of which are defined seasons for the religious faithful. We learned mid-February that even our church itself is on the precept of entering a new season when we learned that Pope Benedict XVI is resigning at the end of February.

The nice thing about seasons is the knowledge that there is always something "next" yet to come. Whether it is the next holiday season we looked forward to as a child (or adult), the smell of spring we yearn for when winter is winding down, or the comfort in our own life because of the knowledge that as Christians, there is an eternal place in heaven set aside for each of us when our mortal season someday comes to an end. That is the great part of seasons; there is always the hope for and the comforting knowledge there will surely be a next season. Please take time to pray for Pope Benedict XVI and the Catholic Church as we and our churches' leaders enter into the joyous hope of the next "season" of our church.

Viviat Jesus

- Ways the applicant participated in his/her church life;
- Extra-curricular activities including any leadership roles he/she held;
- Why he/she should be considered for the Scholarship; and
- To provide three letters of recommendation from non-family members.

Back to Back Breakfasts Keep Workers Busy

Two breakfasts, one near the end of January and the other in early February, kept the KC volunteers very busy.

The January 27 breakfast was a “free will” offering breakfast meaning there were no advance ticket sales and no set price. Attendees made a free will donation to cover their meals. This breakfast was held in conjunction with the St. Mary’s School open house, a part of the National Catholic Schools Week observance. A total of 419 meals were served and the generous patrons’ donations resulted in $1,055 going to St. Mary’s School.

The Saturday morning prep crew workers were:

The Sunday team included:

February 10 was the date of the annual Valentine breakfast benefitting the charitable causes of Council 945. The St. Mary’s cafeteria was decked out in traditional red and white Valentine colors awaiting the hungry patrons. An untimely winter storm with hazardous road conditions dampened the attendance. However, when the final numbers were tallied 245 meals were served to the hearty patrons who ventured out to support the Council. This support in addition to excellent pre-event ticket sales resulted in $1,552 being added to the council coffers.

The Saturday morning prep team:

The Sunday team members:

We have many volunteers and try to name everyone. But, if we missed your name, please accept our apology and know your help is appreciated. 4097513

LaVerne Klecker prepares sausages so they are just right for the hungry patrons.

Joann and Deacon Pat Fagan enjoy breakfast after the 11:00 a.m. Mass at St. Joseph’s Church.

Knight of the Month

John Degner

The January Knight of the Month is no stranger to volunteering. John Degner is part of the KC Chorus and is often pitching in at our benefit breakfasts or Smokin' in Steele.

John was sponsored by Laverne Klecker when he joined back in May of 2011. John said he joined because he "wanted to get involved because we were new in town." Not only that, the urge to help and give back to his new community became a lure, saying, "I like helping out, being involved."

John and his wife Cindy are members of Sacred Heart Parish. They've been married 17 years and have three children – Bethany, Annaka, and Brady.

John is a native of Sparta, WI, and has been in Owatonna since 2009, working at Aramark. In his spare time, John enjoys hunting, camping, NASCAR, and cheering on his Green Bay Packers.

Congratulations to our January Knight of the Month, John Degner!

Benefits Corner by Kevin Gallagher

As you know, we are in the middle of tax preparation season, which means many of you are thinking about how to reduce the amount of taxes paid. One of the very best ways to do this is through an IRA. Many Knights are not aware your Knights of Columbus Insurance Company has an excellent vehicle for those IRA dollars. You can choose between a regular IRA and the very popular Roth IRA. Either way you can rest assured those dollars are safe and working hard for you and your retirement. Give me a call so I can show you how easy it is to either set up a Knights of Columbus IRA or put additional dollars in your existing account.

And...if you are fortunate to already have an existing annuity contract with the Knights, you are literally sitting on a golden opportunity to take advantage of the guaranteed rates you have available to you. Unfortunately, many of you are not taking advantage of this valuable contract provision. Remember, any additional contributions you make will earn the guaranteed interest your contract provides. For most, this will be extremely attractive compared to other options available. When you combine this with the safety inherent in this product it's really hard to beat. Please give me a call so we can discuss particulars.

As always, I can be reached at 507-213-9410. Thanks for taking the time to read (and think about) the important points made here. Have a great month! 3023390
