Chaplain's Message by Rev. John Sauer

On September 14, the Church celebrated the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. It commemorates the historical building of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem and the finding of the cross by St. Helena. But even more importantly, it celebrates God's great love for us in sending His Son who lived among us, suffered, died, and rose for our sake. The goal of God's love for us and action in our lives is laid out in the passage from John's Gospel which served as the Gospel of the day – that we might have eternal life. As a child, our home was adorned with a cross in almost every room. In addition, we had statues of Mary and the Sacred Heart. We put out an Advent wreath and an Easter egg tree. We had palms in our bedrooms and a picture of the Last Supper in the dining room. I wonder if that is true of our homes today.

If someone comes to your home, do they see any concrete signs of your Catholic faith? If you have young children, do you share with them the fun of braiding palms or lighting an Advent wreath week-by-week? Do you honor Mary and the saints by placing a statue or picture in your home or yard? Do you take a moment to say a prayer before your meal at a restaurant?

While none of these makes one a better Catholic in and of themselves, they do remind us of our faith and accompany us as we try to put into practice what the Lord teaches us about being his disciples. Pictures of saints can be visible reminders of those who have faithfully lived and have received the gift of eternal life that God wants for all of us.

One of the treasures of our faith is our sacramental world view – in which we recognize that God uses the things of creation to help us encounter Him in love. Through bread and wine, water and oil, words and gesture, the sacraments and sacramentals help us to experience what God is doing for us. Surrounding ourselves with daily reminders of our faith and our destiny will do the same.

A recent article in the St. Cloud Visitor (their diocesan newspaper) suggested ways of celebrating feasts. One was to leave out your nativity set all year round, "as a reminder that the Incarnation is a gift to be cherished all year – not just in December." In the same way, displaying the cross in our homes can remind us of the great sacrifice which Jesus made for us so that we might be freed from sin and death.

Membership by LaVerne Klecker

Grand Knight's Message by Steve Dornquist

Dear Knights:

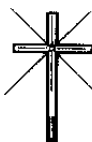

I made it through my first regular meeting! There are a lot of things going on this month of October. I hope most of you can make an effort to participate in as many activities as possible.

I must say I was disappointed with the amount of people at the picnic. With a weather perfect day, we still had less than 30 people. Everyone there seemed to have a good time. Next year, we will make sure that the picnic and a breakfast do not happen on the same day. I will expect to have double the turnout! With free food and refreshments, why wouldn't people come? Please keep this in mind for next year, and don't forget to bring the kids and or grandkids. I just had to get that tidbit off my chest.

One thing I have to give mention to is that October is Rosary month. Please try to make it to the big Rosary Rally at Central Park on the 16th and don't forget the Annual Rosary March at Sacred Heart Cemetery on the 10th.

Thank you and may God Bless.

KC Foodstand has good run at the Fair

Business at the KC Fair Foodstand was much better this year than recent years. There was good activity every day of the fair.

A lot of extra work by our planners and workers resulted in good sales. Many hours were devoted to the stand layout, signs, operation, menu, food preparation, serving, staffing, and pricing. Frank Conley commented, "Every aspect of the Foodstand operation was improved this year. We had great workers, many volunteered to work an additional shift. This made a great difference in the overall operation. The stand layout also made working conditions much better. And the addition of the "Holy Mojo" sandwich gave a nice sales boost. It was a good run."

Long-time foodstand workers Tom Knight and Ray Willmott both commented that many customers returned to say the brats were excellent and then often ordered another.

Special thank you to Tom Burke for his exceptional effort at the foodstand. Tom worked at the foodstand all day - everyday. He helped with the opening, every shift change, and food preparation in the evening. His emphasis on food handling safety and cleanliness helped us receive this comment from the Minnesota Department of Health inspection, "Very clean and well organized foodstand."

Thanks to the daily captains for their extra work in opening,

Our rugged KC members proved they are in great condition by making many trips up and down the grandstand steps at the Truck Pull and Enduro events. None of the fans were ever left thirsty for lack of fine service by our team. A great time was had by all and we are looking forward to next year's Fair and spending time with KC members and their family and friends.

KC Chorus spreads good vibrations at the Fair

KC Chorus at the Village of the Yesteryear prior to program.

The KC Chorus was honored to make two appearances at the 2010 Steele County Fair. The KC Chorus participated in the Fair opening flag raising ceremony at Fair Square on Tuesday afternoon, August 17. The KC Chorus sang patriotic selections for 20 minutes and then sang the National Anthem during the flag raising ceremony by military personnel. Fair opening attendees appreciated the music, especially the Armed Forces Salute.

The KC Chorus also gave a forty-five minute performance of patriotic and folk songs at the Village of Yesteryear on Friday evening, August 20. Laura Resler, Director of the Steele County Historical Society, sent a letter of appreciation for the KC Chorus performance.

The KC Chorus members have been singing together for nearly ten years and it shows with their ability to perform a wide range of religious, folk, and patriotic music in such an outstanding manner. Thanks to Director Stephen Nelson and all Chorus members for their excellent work.

Council 945 Has Successful Campaign for People With Intellectual Disabilities

Peter Broin has been participating in the Special Olympics for 14 years. It's something he and hundreds of other Olympians look forward to every year. Broin plays Softball, Bowling, Track and Field, and Aquatics in competition. But to be at the top of his game, Peter likes to hone his skills at a camp offered for athletes that compete in the Minnesota Special Olympics. "I like to use the batting cage and the catching drills," he says. Unfortunately, there's a cost – and it's something that's not easily borne by everyone. "I wish more athletes from Owatonna would go to camp," Broin says. That's where the Knights of Columbus come in.

"It's just so great that the Knights of Columbus are able help out," says Roy Koenig of the Owatonna Special Olympics. "We're very grateful." The money helps pay for things like uniform costs, transportation, and gym rentals.

At its August meeting, the Owatonna Knights of Columbus doled out a share of $6,176 to four different local organizations. The money was raised from the Council's annual Tootsie Roll drive, which took place earlier this year. The money means a lot to Carolyn Spinler of Rainbow Residence. She says her funding was cut by the state two years ago. They will use the money for a raised flower bed. That flower bed makes gardening much more accessible and enjoyable for the people served there. "They're growing vegetables," she said. "They enjoy it so much."

Also getting a portion of the $6,176 was the Owatonna Parks and Recreation Adaptive Program. Wendy Reller of the Parks and Recreation Department says, "We really appreciate this. We're using it for transportation and lots of social programs." Like Spinler's Rainbow Residence, Reller, too, is facing budget cuts, and the money raised by the Knights of Columbus helps keep them from cutting some of their programming.

The economy's hit Cedar Valley Services, according to Bob Grebe. He's a vocational counselor there, and says the job market for his clients has been affected. "It's been a tough two years for them getting jobs," he says, adding that the money will go in to the general fund.

"We're just very happy we can help these organizations," says Council 945 Grand Knight Steve Dornquast. "We enjoy doing this every year. Our members who have been to the Special Olympics or have seen our work in other areas are energized by how this money makes a difference for so many people. We're happy to help."

But for Peter Broin, he's happy the Knights have stepped up to the plate to help. He says he can't wait for the next sports camp to meet up with old friends. "I just love the dancing with my friends and the meals." Luckily, the Owatonna Knights of Columbus and its Campaign for People With Intellectual Disabilities is able to help, and is looking forward to helping again next year.

Knight of the Month

Eric Tucker

The August Knight of the Month is Eric Tucker. Eric joined Council 945 four years ago and was sponsored by his father-in-law, Dave Pfeifer. Many of you have probably seen Eric helping out with a number of Council projects and fundraisers, including the monthly benefit breakfasts and the food stand at the Steele County Free Fair.

Eric and his wife Kris are members of Sacred Heart Church, and have lived in Owatonna since 2004 when he moved his family to his wife's hometown. They have four children, Trent, Reed, Leah, and Charlie.

Eric is a native of Tony, Wisconsin, and a graduate of the University of Minnesota. He works at Wenger's in Owatonna as an Applications Engineer. He's been at that job for six years.

Eric remains active in the community outside of the Knights of Columbus as well, leading the Boy Scout and Cub Scouts, coaching youth baseball, and serving on the parish council. When he isn't busy making the community better for his family, he enjoys watching the Green Bay Packers and has recently taken up running.

Congratulations to Eric Tucker, Council 945's Knight of the Month.

Kickoff for new benefit breakfast season

The KC breakfast team members were back in great form for the start of the new breakfast season. The first breakfast was held for the SERRA Club and St. Isidore's School on September 10 at St. Mary's School. Thanks to our dedicated breakfast patrons for the good attendance. The dining room duties were shared by the SERRA Club and St. Isidore's students and their parents.

The excellent Council 945 breakfast team was at their best preparing the delicious new menu. Thanks to the KC Sunday breakfast team. Many of these Knights are regular workers at every breakfast: John Ahlberg, Randy Balausk, Keven Boettcher, Brian Carlson, Tim Chicos, Steve Dornquast, Joe Elbert, Steve Fisher, Bill Foreman, Roger Green, Ron Heim, Lee Jardine, Jim Kaplan, Dennis Kelm, LaVerne Klecker, Doug Kloos, Mark Kearin, Bill Lawrence, Glen Meger, Al Nelson, Dave Pfeifer, Will Pieper & family, Doug Phillips, Mark Phillips, Lavern Soukup, Eric Tucker, Rick Wittrock, and Dave Wunderlich.

Thanks to the Saturday prep team: Gerry Barry, Bob Grebe, John Henry, Al Jirele, Tom Knight, Tom Kingsley, John Oberstein, Tim Rice, Lyle Snider, Earl Wheeler, Jim Wiggins, and Ron Wolf. The extra effort by our breakfast closers is always appreciated. We have many workers, so if we missed anyone, please accept our apologies.

The new KC Omelets and KC Country Breakfast are a great breakfast value. The breakfasts provide a way to treat your entire family to an excellent breakfast at very reasonable price. There are no add-ons. We always receive comments from patrons about the excellent food and service. If you haven't attended a breakfast recently, this is good time to find out for yourself.

The Owatonna Area Special Olympics benefit breakfast will be held on October 10. Mark your calendar today! Your participation is important and appreciated.
