MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

Brother Knights,

As Fr. Lavan has mentioned in the bulletin and at the pulpit, we are living in very ABORMAL times, and not a “new normal”. As Catholics, we know deep down that God gives us strength to endure every hardship. My wife Michelle and I kid sometimes about “haven’t we offered it up enough already”. In my experience, I have found that each hardship I have endured prepared me for the future that I couldn’t have anticipated. And, despite what we think, we are not in charge. When we offer our sufferings to Jesus, through His Mother Mary, He hears us, comforts us, and heals us. No offering is too small for God. No burden is too great for Jesus to lift it from us. Need help? Ask Mary! St. Therese, the Little Flower, offered many little things all the time. It’s like taking baby steps and although we may not see the finish line, we know we are moving in the right direction. If you haven’t stopped in on a Wednesday for Eucharistic Adoration at Holy Angels, I encourage you to do so. Just sit, silently in the presence of Our Lord in the monstrance, and let your mind wonder (no typo). (Mine wanders all the time, but that’s a different problem.)

I want to thank my fellow officers and Faith in Action directors for accepting their positions to help lead our council. We are eager to do what we can in service to our church, our pastor, our bishop, and our God. With YOUR help, we will make a difference.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph – pray for us!

Vivat Jesus, and God Bless you and your families.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Building the Domestic Church

“Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father.” (Gospel for June 21, Mt 10:32-33)

The logic is pretty clear-cut, isn't it? In this memorable promise, Jesus assures us of his intercession before the heavenly Father if we acknowledge him before others. Historians tell us that the 20th century saw more martyrs than any before. These brothers and sisters courageously acknowledged Christ before others at the cost of their lives. In our comparative freedom, do we nonetheless deny Christ or hide our faith in little ways? Mindful of Christ's promise and inspired by the faith of recent martyrs, may we acknowledge our Savior before others with serenity, courage and love.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to offer to keep another person's need in your prayers. Second, I challenge you to sustain the priesthood and its witness to the faith by supporting the Faith in Action Re-fund Support Vocations Program (RSVP) or by helping seminarians in some other way.

Questions for Reflection:

What does a full "audit" of your public profession of faith reveal? How does offering to pray for others acknowledge Christ before others?

Ceremonial

As we move forward the "degree" will be referred to as the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity
