MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

Brother Knights,

We begin another Fraternal year, and while a lot has changed, much stays the same. I thank all officers and directors, past and present, for keeping our council so active, and I look forward to the coming year to serve our church, pastor, school, and community. We do this through our programs, and we need to do a better job at engaging some of our “less active” members, through prayer and patience. Beginning July 1, there is no longer a “dispensation” from Holy Mass, and we, as Knights, need to lead the charge back to Sunday Mass, and invite ALL parishioners back. Let’s fill up those pews again and get back to basics and recognize that we need God now more than ever. If you know of a Brother who is hurting or in need, talk to him. Sometimes the best thing we can do is listen. In terms of activities, we have many volunteer opportunities coming up. To name a few:

August – Parish Cook out. Help needed setting up and taking down, and eating.

September – annual tootsie roll drive, this is one the WHOLE family can participate in (two weekends).

September – St. Anne’s Open-Air Market, we’ll be selling mums, and more.

October – Annual 5K run and annual Life chain.

November – pancake breakfast for veterans, remember when we last ate in Connor Hall?

December – St. Anne’s cookie and craft fair is back; we’ll be selling poinsettias again.

These are just the events we KNOW about, and I’m sure there will be more that we don’t know about ... yet (Silver Rose to name one).

May God abundantly bless you and your families.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph – pray for us!

Vivat Jesus,
Bill Dugan

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Building the Domestic Church

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick — no food, no sack, no money in their belts. (Gospel for July 11, Mk 6:7-8)

Jesus sends his disciples out on their mission with few provisions. It would be unthinkable for us today to take a trip without carrying cash or a credit card, making lodging arrangements or packing a suitcase. What are we to make of Christ’s instructions, and how do they relate to our own baptismal mission? I offer two thoughts. First, we must trust that God will provide for our needs as we carry out his work. Second, we must not be encumbered by “excess baggage” — anything in our lives that can hold us back from carrying out God’s will.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to spend an hour each week in eucharistic adoration, reflecting on relying on God alone and becoming detached from the things of this world. Second, I challenge you to work with your pastor to implement the Faith in Action Holy Hour program.

Questions for Reflection:

Are you aware that Jesus is sending you on a mission in the world? Do you truly trust God to provide for your needs along the way? What “baggage” are you carrying that is holding you back from fulfilling God’s mission for you?

Ceremonial

As we move forward the “degree” will be referred to as the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity
