MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

Last month we were all wondering what the next few weeks will bring. Shelter in place orders being implemented by the Governor to try to “flatten the curve” or “stop the spread” we all wondered what was going to happen next. Death numbers are rising and with it a new set of stay at home orders have been implemented. With the extra time on our hands we should take a moment to put ourselves in the Apostle’s shoes after Christ died on the cross. They were locked in a room wondering what is going to happen. This is not too different from what we are facing right now.

When it comes to the Apostles experience we all know what happened next . The risen Lord appeared to them. When they were filled with fear and doubt He was there. They did not have a physical church back then THEY were the church. We may be stuck home and not able to attend mass in person, but we are still the body of the church. The Apostles experience should serve as a reminder that Christ is with us. Between prayer, on line Mass, and other on-line resources through sites such a ETWN.com or Catholic.com we have access to plenty of material to help us in our faith when we can’t get to our church.

While we all long for the day when we can once again enter Holy Angels Church, participate in the sacrifice of the mass, and receive the Body and Blood of our Lord in Holy Communion this time away can certainly remind us of just how precious His gift to us is.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Building the Domestic Church

“I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly.” (Gospel for May 3, Jn 10:9-10) We’ve all gone through times when it seems like we’re just keeping our head above water, or moments when we feel overwhelmed by life. So what does Jesus mean when he says that he came in order that we might have life “more abundantly”? Some think that Jesus is offering a “prosperity gospel” that awards the faithful with happiness, good health and financial success. Yet Christ experienced suffering, as do his followers, so an “abundant life” must mean something else. Whether a given day brings health and success, or trials and suffering, we experience all these things with Christ. By living our lives for Christ, he shows us the way to fullness of life.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori: This month I challenge you to write down Psalm 27:1 — “The Lord is my light and my salvation” — put it up where you’ll see it daily (on the fridge, on your mirror, etc.), and recite it regularly. Second, I challenge you to promote the cause of life by participating in the Faith in Action Ultrasound or Pregnancy Center Support programs or by making a donation to a pregnancy center.
