MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

The old saying is that behind every great man you will find an even greater woman. These words certainly hold true for our Grand Knight Marty and his wife Elizabeth. "These men they call Knights" are called to do great things but without our anchors at home we would nothing more than a group of men raising some money for a good cause. The family IS the Catholic Church; Marty and Elizabeth are a great example of that. Last week Elizabeth was called home by our Heavenly Father. We offer our prayers and condolences to Marty and his family and as Catholics pray for the repose of the soul of Elizabeth. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Even while grieving GK Marty wanted to remind everyone the coat drive starts 11/16. It could be glasses for those who cant afford them, wheel chairs for Veteran's, fish fry's for the Dominican Sisters or Mark Bancroft's 5K our Chapter is always looking to help when needed and it always seems when we need a little extra help the Bellarmine Ladies are standing there with us. Blessed are the pure of heart: for they shall see God.

November provides us several opportunities to say thank you. Later this week we will be hosting a Blue Mass for our First Responders and not shortly after that our Country honors our Veterans. There really are no words that can express our thanks to these groups but we as Knights have always stood side by side with those who protect us. St Michael the Archangel pray for us. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called children of God.

CARDINAL BELLARMI COUNCIL #4849

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Building the Domestic Church

Then [one of the criminals] said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” He replied to him, “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.” (Gospel for Nov. 24, Lk.23:42-43)

We’ve read these words so many times that it’s easy to miss their power. Here is Jesus using his last minutes of earthly life to show mercy to a dying criminal and to promise him life in heaven that very day. We may not like to admit it, but we have a tendency to insulate ourselves from entire groups of people — perhaps the poor, the homeless or the sick. Yet these are precisely the people with whom Jesus spent so much time. While the religious “upper class” often ignored or mocked Jesus, the poor acknowledged him as Lord and were transformed. May the unlikely words of a criminal — “Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom” — become our own urgent prayer.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to ask God’s pardon and mercy by making a thorough examination of conscience and going to confession. I also challenge you to serve those in need individually or with your council through Faith in Action programs such as Coats for Kids or Food for Families.

Questions for Reflection:

Are there habits in your daily routine which exclude or ignore those on the margins of our society? What are some ways, large or small, that you can increase your efforts to help the poor and the needy? How does going to confession help us to imitate the penitent thief, and what can we learn from his prayer?

Degree

Are you a Knighthood Degree member?
If not, you can easily become one by taking your Formation and Knighthood Degrees.

The next Degree(s) are scheduled:
