MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

WEEKEND INFORMATION

For those Cursillistas who would love to come back and serve on a Cursillo weekend the Rockford Diocese holds weekends twice a year, once in the fall and spring for both men and women.

Brother Knights,

A GREAT time was had by all at our parish cook-out on August 21. Although the rain forced everybody to eat indoors, in the air conditioning, with no mosquitoes to “bug” us, there was plenty to eat, but no activities for the children except to run around Connor Hall and the hallway areas. THANK YOU to master grillers Phil Brink, and Pat Gengler who braved the elements (heat, rain, thunder, lightning) to cook the hamburgers and hot dogs outdoors next to the Connor Hall ramp area. The easy-up tent didn’t work so well when the grill was underneath due to the smoke accumulation, but they were able to work things out. The food was delicious.

It’s back to school, but it seems like we’re not quite back to normal. As Fr. Lavan reminds us, COVID is NOT a “new normal”. We must remain diligent in our efforts to keep our families and ourselves SAFE. Follow the proper guidelines, frequent hand washing, and don’t be afraid to wear your masks.

What is somewhat normal is our annual Intellectual Disabilities (aka Tootsie Roll) Drive. We still are not permitted to collect at Wal-Mart, or the Jewel on Galena, but we CAN collect at the locations below. This is one the WHOLE family can participate in (two weekends) on:

September 3&4:

Prisco’s on both days from 8am until 6pm – contact Bill Dugan.

Jewel Rt. 47 September 4 ONLY from 10am until 2pm, contact Joe Didier.

September 10&11:

Woodman’s from 8am until 6pm, contact John Schreiber.

Intersection from 8am until 4pm, contact Pat Gengler.

On September 17th, we will be holding our annual Mass, at 6:30am, for the living and deceased members of our council, which just happens to be the feast day for Cardinal Bellarmine. If you don’t know much about his great saint, click below:

<http://uknight.org/CouncilSite/about.asp?CNO=4849>

Also, on September 18th – St. Anne’s Open-Air Market, we’ll be selling mums, and more. The Knights have been asked to help with table setup and take-down.

Be sure to look at our website from time to time, pictures are added (roadside cleanup, parish cook-out, etc.), events are posted, our insurance agent’s information is on the HOME page.

May God abundantly bless you and your families.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph – pray for us!

Blessed Michael McGivney – pray for us!

Vivat Jesus,
Bill Dugan

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Building the Domestic Church

They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." (Gospel for Sept. 19, Mk 9:34-35)

Naturally, in every good undertaking — whether doing one’s job, helping another or playing a sport — we ought to strive for excellence, for greatness. But here, Jesus gives that thinking a twist: If we want to be great in the kingdom of heaven, we must embrace humility and become servants. We must not seek headlines, but rather give of ourselves for the sake of others, for the common good. My brothers, let us forgo seeking earthly glory in favor of being selfless “team players” in building the kingdom of heaven.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori: This month, I challenge you to watch the “Leadership” episode of the Into the Breach video series and use the study guide to reflect on what true humility and service look like. Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Soccer Challenge or Free Throw Championship program.

Questions for Reflection: Do you seek personal glory at the expense of others? Do you put your gifts at the service of God and your neighbor, or do you use them primarily to achieve praise and gain in this life? What is one concrete act you can do to grow in humility and give of yourself to others?

Ceremonial

As we move forward the “degree” will be referred to as the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity
