Faithful Navigator's Message: Welcome to our new Sir Knights of #0626 Assembly: John M. Byrne, Michael J. Hasbrouck, Jeffrey D. Kern, Eric E. Melanson, Anthony P. Noce, Kevin P. Reilly, William J. Schenkelberg and James L. Trabucchi, who took their 4th Degree at St. Jude Church on June 16, 2018.

A sincere Thank You to all who helped in any way at the Exemplification. John McClure's "kitchen crew" did a fantastic job.

Faithful Friar's Message: Worthy Sir Knights, Jesus told his followers: "Go teach all nations whatever I have commanded you." It would seem that in this country the only "followers" who have heeded his advice these days are the Seventh Day Adventists, the Mormons and the Evangelicals. The vast majority of Christians, however, would seem to be either uninterested or resistant to any activity of this sort in society, as was cleverly illustrated by the 1970's movie: Oh God.

In his role as God in the movie, George Burns, wearing a baseball beaked cap and a pair of dark rimmed glasses, appeared to a young department store manager one morning while he was showering with an invitation to spread the word to the whole world by means of the news media that God is not dead, that He exists and deeply loves everyone. No one takes him seriously; even his family rejects him.

Finally, he had enough, and couldn't wait for his next meeting with God to complain: "Preaching your word means I'm liable to lose my job!" God smiled as only George Burns can, and replied: "That's not such a bad trade. Lose a job . . . save a world, not a bad deal." But even realizing that God is not going to be outdone in generosity, how much are we really ready to give up to be a bona fide follower of Jesus?

- Fr. Cecil Donahue, O.S.B., Faithful Friar

P. S. O God can be picked up from me for a two nights loan. 656-6080
