

KofC St. Benedict Council #9056 is hosting an

Open House/Benefits Night & Social!

Your presence is requested for this quarterly open house which is open to all Catholic families.

When: Tuesday, May 21st at 7:00 PM

Where: St. Gregory the Great Parish, Benedict Hall (in front of Marian Manor) 5351 Virginia Beach Blvd
Virginia Beach, VA 23462

Menu: Food & Beverages provided

Fun: 50/50 Raffle and other prize opportunities!

We will discuss the benefits available to you and your family such as...

- Charitable Works & Fraternal, Social, and Spiritual benefits of membership
- Retirement, College Savings, Life Insurance, Long-Term Care planning
- Special programs for the military and first responders
- Transition planning for the military and government services
- Common sense, faith-based approaches to financial portfolios

RSVP is not required but strongly encouraged to reserve a spot. If you can't make it, setup a private appointment with Ben Salazar at (757) 495-1492 or benjamin.salazar@kofc.org.

Alternately, you can also visit www.knights.net to learn more about the Knights and fill out an online application. Make sure you mark you are interested in joining council #9056, serving St. Gregory the Great parish. Membership in the Knights is open to men 18 years of age or older who are practical Catholics in union with the Holy See.

Since 1882, Knights have been leaders in charity and Catholic fraternity. Becoming a Knight will change your life and the life of your family.

Come join a Catholic brotherhood united in charity and fraternity.

Defend the faith.

Protect your family.

Be a difference in our world.

KNIGHTS
OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.