Admission, Formation, and Knighthood Degree Exemplifications Saturday, November 4, 2017

Somerset Council 6759 in Somerset is holding a Admission, Formation, and Knighthood degree exemplification at St Anne's Catholic Church in Somerset, WI on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017. All of the degrees will be held in the morning. Please get this information to your council's membership who are in need of their second and third degrees. Also, we invite any new candidates that you can bring for their first degree. They will then have the opportunity to complete all three degree programs in one day. Keep in mind, the first degree program starts quite early to keep the day on schedule and complete the day's program by early afternoon. Please call and make a personal contact and invite each member that needs their specific degree. Then bring your candidates to Somerset. Remind first degree candidates to bring their Form 100 and all second and third degree candidates to bring their membership card.

Rolls, coffee and juice will be provided prior to the first degree and in between the degrees for candidates and brother Knights. The council will provide lunch and beverages following the third degree.
