Re: Mark L Deaton, FICF

I have known Mark in my capacity as chaplain of Council 8482. He attends my parish sometimes and is involved in the prayer ministry here. He is also the representative handling my personal annuity account.

Whenever I visit with Mark personally or see him at Council meetings or social gatherings, I always see the same man. He is consistently caring, actively listening and ready to help or answer questions. He doesn't appear to have to "shift gears" to become a listener and does not go into overdrive about presenting or selling the products he represents. He speaks about what he and the Knights provide with absolute sincerity and clarity. He comes across to me as a man who is not going to push anybody against the wall, but is not going to step back from the genuine benefits of what he is selling or explaining.

In all of these qualities, I see a man who can represent the Knights with integrity. I don't cringe when I see him coming and I don't have difficulty getting in touch with him if I have a question or a need.

I am glad that Mark is a part of our K of C experience here at 8482.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. John T. Keller
Chaplain
