Why are you a Knight?

Brothers,

For me being a Knight is an important part of my life. Looking back as far as I can remember the Knights have played a role in making me a better person. I can remember going to events with my father, grandfather, and PSD Willard Patocka as a child. No matter my age, I always felt I was one of the guys. At an early age, I was taught that giving back is always better than receiving. This is true of the Knights.

Matthew Maly

Later in my life, I found many mentors outside my family within the Knights. Andy Opat was one of the first that I met when I was 10 years old. He was one of a kind for sure. He taught me the art of flipping pancakes and many other things from his stories. PSD Dale Harrison was another one of those Knights who lead me to greatness, not only in the community, but in my faith as well. I can remember when I was Council 4593 Grand Knight, PSD Harrison said, "One day I will be calling you State Deputy". Of course, at the time that did not seem realistic but look at me now, the State Deputy of Oklahoma. He supported me with nominations as I worked my way up to State Deputy. I can think of many more men I call a mentor. For example, PSD, VSM David Roewe. David and I were the recruitment "ATeam" for a few years. I was his State Membership Director, and we worked hard to make our COH trip fun, but when you get us two together, fun is going to quickly follow. We then worked on the House in the Box Program. These were some very cherished times. PSD Jose Jimenez and his wife Lisa are like a part of our family. We get together we ever we can. Jose and I burned up the roads when I was membership director.

From the State Deputy

PSD, FVSM Paul Weigel and his wife Barbara, PSD, FVSM Dan Hogan and his Toni, and PSD Bob Melko, all taught Dee and me the true lesson of being a State Warden. As with every position there is something important to be learned as you work your way up. I would be remiss if I did not mention our PSD and current Supreme Treasurer Ron Schwarz and his beautiful wife Janette. They are part of our family based on Grandma Helen's declaration while I was in Nicoma Park. Ron and I spent many windshield hours while he was State Deputy discussing best practices for the Oklahoma Knights. He was instrumental in helping me with the accounting change over when I was State Treasurer. However, I suppose the primary mentors behind all this are my parents, the wise ones that introduced me to the Knights. I can most definitely say the Knights of Columbus has made me a better man, father, husband, and Catholic.

Oh, but the Knights have offered my family much more, I cannot even start to list all the friends we have made in the Knights. The current officers have become family to Dee and me along with many of the directors we have worked with. When my job required me to move just before Kristy's senior year, the Knights lined up to help. Kristy had many host families ensuring she stayed in Choctaw High for her last year. My great friend Philip Stramski has been there not only as a friend, but a fellow Knight the whole time. Yes, the Knights of Columbus has offered my family so many opportunities to build a lifetime of friends.

So, I ask you, "Why did you join the Knights of Columbus?" Was it a family tradition, friendship, or just the idea of giving back? No matter what your reason was, why you are still a Knight has probably changed over time.

Knowing what I know about the Knights, it shocks me to think that every man would not want the same thing for themselves and their families. You would think every Catholic man would be breaking down our doors. In fact, as men we have a problem telling our story. I am not talking about the official Legacy of the Knights of Columbus; I am talking about what you are doing in your church and community. I am talking about how you are building friends within your council.

This is My Two Cents on the Knights of Columbus. Yes, we are an organization that provides support to our church and community. But if you really think about it, we provide men and their families the opportunity to build friendships with people that embrace the same beliefs and ideals. All we must do is tell our stories within our Catholic family. I know if people truly knew the rest of the story, they too would want what we have.

As you can see, for me the Knights of Columbus has given me an Experience of a Lifetime. It has been an absolute honor serving you as your State Deputy.

Shawnee brothers bring Easter joy

On Easter Sunday afternoon, Council 1018, Shawnee was happy to resurrect the annual Easter Egg hunt for the St Benedict parish, after having been cancelled last year due to Covid-19. Over 50 children, ages three to twelve, enthusiastically participated in searching for eggs scattered throughout a field at Calvary Cemetery in Shawnee.

Looking back at an unusual year

My dear Brother Knights and family:

As we prepare for the upcoming 116th convention of the State Council of the Knights of Columbus, we look back at what all has transpired over this past year. So much to reflect upon and to spend time and space in this column to do justice.

One of the big highlights, of course, was the recent beatification of the founder of the Order, Blessed Michael J. McGivney. Now officially recognized and one step closer to sainthood our holy founder is interceding for us as we begin our deliberations.

All of us are so weary of the pandemic experience, that we long for the return of some sense of normalcy in our lives. It just comes out of our pours. Please, can we get back to normal? Then we hear someone say, "well maybe this is the new normal." That in itself takes time to adjust to. In any crisis, in any emergency, the first thing "first responders" and "therapists" try to do for the "victims" is get them back into a normal routine as soon as possible. This helps make the emergency seem less harrowing. But that has not been the case of any of the "people who are in charge" of this pandemic. They have not seemed to want to help the people get back to a sense of normalcy. But we need that as a society. The society has to have standards and normalcy to survive. It cannot run on adrenaline all the time.

Fr. Price
Oswalt

Therefore in our anxiety, in our stress, in our desire to live with the day to day challenges of the pandemic, we do what we can to make the world in which we live make sense, by doing the daily things we can seem as normal as possible.

So in that light ... we go on with the business of the State Council....we hold a convention!

The State Officers and leadership team have been working diligently during the crisis to make things as available as possible to all the family of the Knights of Columbus. The same will be true for the upcoming State Convention. We encourage as many as possible to come in person to the Convention, and know that it will be as safe as humanly possible, but it will also be available on zoom if you wish to join us through that medium.

So in the meantime, in the joy and spirit of the Easter Season just upon us, let us lift up our hearts to the Risen Savior. Let us employ the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of the Redeemer; let us turn to Bl. Michael McGivney, Bl. Stanley Rother, St. Joseph and all the angels and saints to sing that ever glorious triumphant hymn of all creation: Alleluia! For He is Risen. In Him is our Hope and we shall never hope in vain.

I send you my priestly blessings and hope that the Lord will let us see one another in person soon. May the Risen Lord hold you in the palm of His hand and grant you all the graces necessary for your salvation.

Council helps pro-life cause

By Jolene Schonchin
The Sooner Catholic

Each year, members of the Knights of Columbus conduct a program called Faith in Action with pro-life efforts as a part of the program.

With January as pro-life month, the Knights of Columbus Council #5168 joined with parishioners at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Marlow and Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church in Duncan to promote the right to life.

"We wanted to do something for our community. We chose Charis Center in Duncan," explained Michael Heim, grand knight of council #5168. "Charis is more than just a pregnancy center. It is a ministry. Their mission is to glorify God by sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ and upholding the sanctity of human life. 85 percent of women considering abortion have a change of heart when they see the ultrasound of their unborn child."

Kimberla Treat, executive director for the Charis Center, said the center offers pregnancy testing, options counseling, ultrasound, prenatal and parenting classes, a baby boutique for baby items, abortion recovery and classes for dads.

"We are so thankful for Michael and the local Knights of Columbus. The money raised will go toward the purchase of a new ultrasound," Treat said.

The council and parishioners used baby bottles to fill with loose change.

"We collected $2,000 to assist in the upgrading of the ultrasound machine, which the Knights donated to Charis a few years ago," Heim said. "Our council and our parishioners are praying for an end to abortion with our pastor Father Peter Jandacek."

Supreme Board elects Kelly next Supreme Knight

Earlier this year, the Knights of Columbus Board of Directors elected Patrick E. Kelly as the next Supreme Knight, to continue the mission of charity, unity and fraternity established by the Order's Founder, Blessed Michael McGivney, almost 140 years ago.

Kelly

Carl A. Anderson retired February 28, after more than 20 years of service as Supreme Knight and upon reaching the mandatory retirement age of 70. He leaves a legacy of Christian witness and service to the Catholic Church, to the Knights of Columbus and to communities throughout the world. Today, the Knights of Columbus Board of Directors elected Patrick E. Kelly as the next Supreme Knight, to continue the mission of charity, unity and fraternity established by the Order's Founder, Blessed Michael McGivney, almost 140 years ago.

Patrick Kelly's tenure as the Order's 14th

Supreme Knight started March 1.

Statement by retiring Supreme Knight Carl Anderson:

"The Knights of Columbus board has elected an extraordinarily well-qualified new Supreme Knight in Patrick Kelly. Patrick has dedicated his life in service to the Church, his country, and the Knights of Columbus. He has served as Deputy Supreme Knight for four years and is a well-rounded public servant with diplomatic and military experience. He is ideally suited to carry on the work of the Knights of Columbus as we enter a new era, faithful to our principles of charity, unity and fraternity, and in close collaboration with the Holy See and the bishops throughout the world. As Deputy Supreme Knight, Patrick has played a leading role in several major initiatives, including our international religious freedom efforts, our pro-life Ultrasound Initiative, and our new public initiation ceremony. He also served as Executive Director of the Saint John Paul II National Shrine, leading its transformation through the creation of its worship spaces and world-class exhibit on the life of St. John Paul II. Most recently, Patrick led the Knights' grassroots response to the COVID-19 pandemic titled "Leave No Neighbor Behind." Through this initiative, brother Knights around the world are serving those isolated and alone in quarantine, supporting food banks and blood centers in need of vital supplies, and providing other essential services. Patrick has the experience and strong faith necessary to lead the Knights into the future."

For over a decade, Patrick Kelly has worked at a senior level on the frontlines of the Knights' work in charity, advocacy, and the management of the organization's multibillion-dollar insurance and investment operations. Mr. Kelly joined the Knights as a university student in Wisconsin in 1983 and later served as State Deputy in the District of Columbia.

State Golf Tournament is next month

Dear Brothers and Friends of the Knights of Columbus:

The Stillwater Council 5266 of the Knights of Columbus will host the 2021 Annual State Golf Tournament at the Golf Club at Cimarron Trails, Perkins, Okla. This tournament is open to all brother Knights, family and friends of the Knights of Columbus. It is expected that over 100 participants from all over the state of Oklahoma will be present at this event for a great day of golf. Even though the event is a social event, the Knights of Columbus would like to take the opportunity of this gathering to raise funds for an organization that is dear to our hearts, the Center of Family Love.

We would like to offer you the opportunity to support the Center of Family Love as a participant in the event and/or through the many sponsorship opportunities that our tournament offers, such as tournament program advertising, prizes for first, second and third place teams, individual hole competitions and hole sponsorships. All proceeds from our tournament will be donated to the Center of Family Love on behalf of all our sponsors.

We would appreciate it if you would take the time to look at the different opportunities to participate in this event as a player and/or sponsor. Attached you will find a tournament entry form, and sponsorship description and a form to indicate your sponsorship.

Please send the forms and check for the sponsorship amount to the tournament coordinator:

Pedro Velasco 304 S Keats Dr
