FRATERNITY is defending the needy, especially the young

If anyone should cause one of these little ones to lose faith in me, [woe to that person]. ~ Mark 9:42

A skinny boy with a shoeshine kit stood at the edge of a sidewalk café. A woman felt a surge of admiration for him for trying to be a man and earn a living.

Just then a man charged out of the café, grabbed the boy, and threw him like a bag of garbage out into the street.

The woman's heart went out to the boy. Why did the man treat the boy so brutally?

He hadn't picked anybody's pocket. He hadn't stolen anyone's purse. He hadn't tried to sell drugs.

As the boy limped off, ashamed and humiliated; the diners went back to eating. The woman wondered: "How will this cruel experience affect his attitude toward work and people?" ~

Mark Link, S.J.

How would you have reacted if you had witnessed this incident? Now, in retrospect, how should a Catholic gentleman react?

Give us clear vision that we may know where to stand and for what to stand, because unless we stand for something, we put up with everything. ~ adapted from Peter Marshall
