Keynote Speaker

John Connelly has been involved in lay ministry, parish missions, retreats, and conferences for the past thirty years. His expertise is in communicating simple, interactive teachings to connect people more deeply with their God-given mission in life. John's latest project is called, "Becoming Saints: Letting Go to Jesus in Us." His passion is to show how the Saints' lives reveal the pathway to a deeper life of prayer, holiness, and mission for us all.

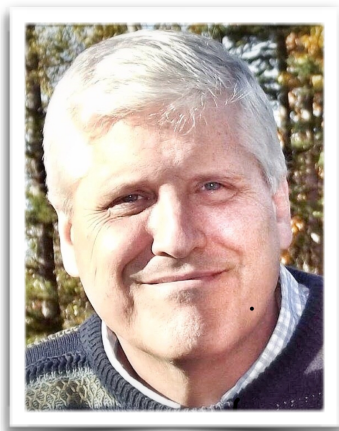

Music Leader

Gerald Montpetit and his wife, Denise, are the founders and creators of Cat.Chat Productions. They have 5 children who are actively involved in the ministry. Celebrating their 17th year of operation, Cat.Chat has created a bank of Catholic music and resources that have proven to be 'classics' for families, schools, and churches.
