- On this day, September 14, Americans all across our nation will honor the memory of the more than 56 million unborn victims of abortion...
- We will pray for all babies who have died an early death due to illness
- We will pray for all who have been touched by abortion too...
- We will pray for all doctors, nurses and clinic staff involved with abortion...
- Rosary & Prayers will be recited at our memorial service!

Please join us for this National event to ensure unborn babies and all babies that have experienced an early death, born and unborn, will not be forgotten
