ARKANSAS STATE COUNCIL

September 2015 Newsletter

Father Jerome Kodell, Associate State Chaplin

Care of our Common Home

Pope Francis has a way of clearing away the clutter and helping us see things in a new way. This is the case again with his recent encyclical on the environment, “Laudato Si’.” The discussion on this issue had gotten into a rut of political comment, and we were in the habit of turning off the tired old discussion.

But right from the beginning of the encyclical, or even before the beginning in its title, Pope Francis gives us new glasses: not “On the Environment” but “On Care for our Common Home.” Who can be indifferent to care of our home?

He takes his cue from St. Francis: “Praise be to you, my Lord, through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs” (1), and then makes the point: “This sister now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her” (2). This is the unvarnished truth with no spin. No one can deny that we have harmed Sister Earth by our irresponsibility.

The Pope then says this issue is not just a concern of certain interest groups, but is critical to all of us. It is critical to Christians as a moral and spiritual issue. In other words our personal response is a matter of our religious observance. “Alongside revelation so called, contained in sacred Scripture, there is a divine manifestation in the blaze of the sun and the fall of night” (85).

The Knights of Columbus are known as the “go-to guys” when the Church identifies areas of need, where the work of God is under threat – protection of the unborn, care of the handicapped, ministry to immigrants, and on and on. Here is another area where the Pope and bishops will be relying on us to carry the banner of the Gospel into the troubled arena.

Father Jerome Kodell
Associate State Chaplin

Adrian Dominguez, State Deputy

Brother Knights, families and friends,

I pray to find you all well in this month of September when the days are getting shorter and the cool days are coming upon us. Thank God for the seasons of change, in our weather and in things we need to do to serve our Lord Jesus Christ.

September is the month to remember all those angles who were aborted with the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, Saturday, September 12, 2015. Please visit the following site: <http://www.abortionmemorials.com/>. A listing of memorial locations and other very important information may be found on this site. Please take an active role on this day, which may be used for one of your events for Pro-Life for your star council award. God has a special place for all these innocent souls and we as Knights must continue to pray for the end of abortion, these angles and all mothers to be.

With our third month of the fraternal year upon us, our councils are active and doing many things throughout our jurisdiction. Please continue to schedule First Degrees in your councils to bring in more souls into our order. Our councils are the right hand of the church and must continue to help our parishes and priests in everything we do. Having more Knights in your councils insures our order to be vibrant and long lasting for years to come, helping our church with all its needs.

After a few months of ensuring we have all our permits and permissions ready for the state wide raffle for the seminarian trust fund, all tickets have been distributed to the councils for sale. Posters will be sent out to the District Deputies for each council and literature will be given to promote our event. Remember, we are Building the Kingdom of God in Arkansas by ensuring we have future priests for our children and children's children. Our obligation as Catholic Knights is to ensure we take care of our priests and future priests in our jurisdiction.

During the Supreme Convention, our Supreme Knight asked that we continue to pray and support all Christians in Syria and Iraq. A Holy Cross program was rolled out to the order for funds to continue to be given to these areas of need. Please visit our Supreme web site: www.kofc.org on how to order the crosses and how to continue supporting the persecuted Christians in this area of the world.

Brother Knights, families and friends, thank you for all you do in making our Arkansas Jurisdiction as great as it is. Our continued commitment in serving our Lord Jesus Christ, His church, our Bishop, Priests and seminarians in all our works through the order is a blessing we should not take lightly. Pray for our vocations, our church and our order, that all continue to flourish and grow with all good things we do.

May our Lord Jesus Christ bless you and all you do,

Adrian Dominguez
State Deputy

Phillip Savage - State Secretary

Hello my brothers. Peace be with you. Be courageous and stout hearted for God is with us.

Wow! Many great things are going on in this great jurisdiction we call Arkansas.

Just to recap what the State Officers have been up to... on July 12: Steak dinner at council 812 in Little Rock - it is heartwarming spending time with brother Knights.

July 18-19: Organizational Meeting Bentonville, Mass and installation of officers. Everything was beautiful, just beautiful!

July 23: Mass with Bishop Taylor, Monsignor Scott Friend, some of the seminarians, visiting the Carmelite sisters, the Abba House and Monastery of Marylake; because of your generosity, we were able to make donations to each.

July 25: Mass and then a meal with our newest council 16222 in Nashville, AR. Everyone had a wonderful time and the best Tamales I have ever eaten!!

July 26: Mass at Saint Mary's in Altus; we held a First Degree adding two new members for Altus and two for 12875 in Charleston and then we cooked steaks for council 14010 in Altus. The steaks were wonderful and the fellowship was fantastic.

August 15: Council Leadership Training at 996 in Ft. Smith with a great turn out. I handed out some Arkansas State Directories. Yes, the State Directories are here! August 16: Council Leadership Training Texarkana, good turn out there as well!

Next Council Leadership Training in Jonesboro August 22nd, and then on to Pine Bluff August 23rd.

When you spend time with your brother Knights all over the state, you build memories you will remember always!

State Leadership Team is thinking about going on world tour, thought we might start with the state first but we can't find any roadies or groupies!!!

This year will continue it's fast pace to ensure the success of our Charitable Raffle - we have pledged our support in the effort to raise one million dollars for our future priests! When your council has a big event and wants to make it a large fund-raising event for the Seminarians give us a call. If we can, we will bring the 2016 Chevrolet Colorado Crew Cab truck to you so while we are raising money we can show off the Truck!!

God bless us in all we do for the glory of Christ!

Philip A. Savage
State Secretary

Max W. Nutt - PSD, Ceremonial Director

Please, don't' forget the upcoming 2nd and 3rd Degree ceremonies scheduled on:

September 20, 2015, District 15, hosted by Charleston Council 12875

October 4, 2015, District 8, hosted by Conway Council 4143

November 8, 2015, District 4, hosted by El Dorado Council 5099

Please encourage your 1st Degree members to participate in one of these ceremonies; they will be better Knights for it.

Peter J. McNulty, Vocations/RSVP Chairman

My Brother Knights

Continuing for the 2014-2015 years and into the 2016, our Diocese will have 44 seminarians. A quick repeat from the State Meeting in Aug.; Probable Ordinations 2016 –6 ,2017—6, 2018—8. What a blessing for our Diocese.

We have 7 new seminarians for this year; Two are son s of ordained Deacons, one joins his brother in seminary studies, one is from Columbia, one is from Vietnam originally but comes from Canada with previous seminary training, he will attend the Sacred Heart School of Theology in Wis. Four of these new candidate will begin their studies at ULAR and reside at the House of Formation , two will be enrolled in the Conception Seminary College, located in Missouri.

The ages of these young men range from 18-38 years.

As you can see Msgr. Friend and his team have been at work serving the Diocese very well for the benefit of us all.

I would remind all councils and assemblies that support any seminarian or novice to PLEASE send a copy of your RSVP REFUND application to me.

Here are the lists of councils and assemblies that provide support of our seminarians through the RSVP for our Diocese;

There is one council supporting 2 seminarians from Subiaco Abbey.

I know that's a lot of numbers to look at BUT if your council or ASM is NOT listed—could it be—should it be ?? You gentleman will have to decide. Please review the possibilities and hopefully join in the efforts to support all of our TREASURE –GOD'S gift of calling to these young men and hopefully many more.

With God's blessing we will all reap the benefit of our sacrifice(s) made in helping with the support of our seminarians. For the next few years we see many new faces as we see these young men Ordained, they will be there for us as we need and share in the Sacraments

Please pray for ALL our seminarians, their parents, our vocations team, and all our Brother Knights, their families, and please pray for all our servicemen/women

May GOD in His mercy BLESS AMERICA

Conway Council 4143

At last night's Conway Council 4143 meeting, they were presented a plaque from the American Red Cross for their exceptional service to the community. Conway Council has been participating in blood drives since 2002 and have recently held their 50th drive, which set record of 42 donations. By the Red Cross numbers, Conway Council has donated 995 units (over 125 gallons) of blood and potentially saved 2,985 lives...one unit can save 3 lives. Award was presented to Grand Knight Chris Hoyt and Kevin Monroe who coordinates and handles the blood drives.

Diabetes research gets new motto, new name

The JDRF (formerly Juvenile Diabetes Research Fund) welcomed big walkers and corporate sponsors to its annual One Walk kickoff luncheon at Pleasant Valley Country Club on July 15.

The nonprofit opened with a snippet of its new branding — “We’re the plan for a cure type, the improve life along the way type ... the stop at nothing until Type 1 becomes Type none” — and then welcomed speakers like board member Dr. Teresa Nimmo, Cindy Holland, and Justin Flores.

Scott and Robbi Davis (Team Parker’s Pack) were recognized as the top grossing team in recent years (with more than $12,000 last year, and more than $47,000 over four years). That prompted this response from Wayne Eastman — “We’re coming after ya!”

Eastman is co-captain of

The Rodgestars of Russellville along with Jen and Mike Rogers. They were named Most Creative Captains in part for raising money from a golf tournament, a pancake breakfast and direct appeals.

Other “mosts” included the corporate team from First Security Bank ($16,000 last year and $43,400 over three years); the most spirited corporate team, QualChoice, and school team, the University of Central Arkansas baseball team and “Diamond Dolls”; and simply the largest team (and presenting sponsor), Land O’ Frost and captains Julie Baker and Stacy Looney.

The big walk is still more than two months away — mercifully, since the temperature this day was 98 — on Oct. 3 at Dickey-Stephens ballpark (and again Oct. 17 in Jonesboro).
