Message from the State Deputy

Dear Brothers,

I hope your Christmas and New Year's be abundantly filled with God's Blessing and that you are ready for a very exciting and productive 2019. I have been reading a book that is over 75 years old by C.S. Lewis entitled "The Screwtape Letters" about a demon's letters to his nephew (also a demon) on how to win over the people assigned to them for the Devil. It is very timely and could have been written today. It points out the subtle ways that they influence people in thoughts, desires, lack of conviction and by getting them to waste their time in worthless pursuits on earth. I would highly recommend that in addition to the Bible you add this one book to your 2019 Christian reading list.

One of the devotional readings I had today was "An excellent method of preserving interior silence is to keep exterior silence. . . even in the world, each one of us can make his own solitude, a boundary beyond which nothing can force its way unperceived. It is not noise in itself that is the difficulty, but noise that is pointless; it is not every conversation, but useless conversations; not all kinds of occupation, but aimless occupations. In point of fact, everything that does not serve some good purpose is harmful. It is foolish, nay, more, it is a betrayal to devote to a useless objective power that can be given to what is essential. There are two ways of separating ourselves from almighty God, quite different from one another but both disastrous, although for different reasons: mortal sin and voluntary distractions—mortal sin, which objectively breaks off our union with God, and voluntary distractions, which subjectively interrupt or hinder our union from being as close as it ought to be. We should speak only when it is preferable not to keep silence. The Gospel does not say merely that we shall have to give an account of every evil word, but of every idle thought." — St. Alphonsus Liguori.

The point of recommending the book and sharing the devotional is to ask that our 2019 resolution be that this year we will start using all our time in pursuit of that which is pleasing to God, strengthens the Church, our Families and Order of the Knights of Columbus.

Message from the State Deputy (continued)

I look forward to working with you to make the balance of the Fraternal Year the best one yet in Nevada and ask for your help with getting all eligible Catholic men into the Order and support our faith, clergy, parishes and each other as we take on this endeavor.

Thank you in advance Brothers as I know you can be counted on to the best of your abilities for this mission.

Message from the State Membership Director

MEMBERSHIP IN JANUARY

HAPPY NEW YEAR! We hope you all had a MERRY CHRISTMAS especially a BLESSED CHRISTMAS! I know you did and, in the process, made a great impression upon all parishioners. Good impressions will bring in GOOD Knights. GOOD Knights will make a STRONG COUNCIL.

Just thought I would mention it again; 1 KNIGHT A MONTH. Why do I mention it: You promised us 1 Knight a Month per Council? You said you could and would do it. How's it going? Our Council has 5 candidates for the initiation rite the end of December and 1st part of January. I have no idea where they came from but they're joining us SOON. I can only share what I wrote in the 1st paragraph. Good example; lots of involvement; visibility. Knights doing things for the parish will show active men in the parish that there is: "Strength in Numbers". We had a function for the middle school children and had 14 knights present. Those 14 knights demonstrated oneness and resolve to the fathers who accompanied their children; about 30 of them. That type of Good Example will bring in New Knights! I know you all have done this; just a reminder that it works.

Lent is coming! Lent is a great time to offer a Lenten Program. I've suggested in the past that during the Fish Fries we utilize some of the K of C Videos. They're on DVD or you can "stream" them from a computer. Now would be the perfect time to prepare. Choose the topics; there's a ton of them. Make sure they run. Arrange for 1 or 2 large screen TV's to be in the room and STREAM AWAY! Even if they only attract the attention of 1 or 2 guys it's worth it. NOW would be the time to work with the pastor to make provide a Lenten Program in which the K of C could participate. Remember sometimes it's the wife who convinces her husband that "He would make a Good Knight". So, prep for those February/March/April candidates. 1 Knight a Month per Council! You promised!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Ray

Message from the State Church & Vocations Director

Titus 2:11-12

God's grace has been revealed and has made salvation possible for the whole human race and taught us that what we have to do is to give up everything that does not lead to God and all our worldly ambition: we must be self-restrained and live a good and religious lives here in the present world.

Prayer:

God, our father, our human nature is the work of your hands, made still more wonderful by your work of your hands, made still more wonderful by your work of redemption.

Your son took to himself our manhood: grant us a share in the God of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns forever and ever.

AMEN

BROTHERS BLESSED MERRY CHRISTMAS AND GRACE FILLED PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

THE STRONG RIGHT ARM OF THE CHURCH

BROTHERHOOD, FOR LIFE

"In college, I came to embrace my Catholic faith and encountered the Knights of Columbus. The thought of becoming a Knight was a dream come true, yet I realized this wasn't enough to satisfy my heart: I could do still more to serve my King."

I began to pray the rosary and encountered a God who wanted me to serve him in the footsteps of St. Ignatius of Loyola — to take up the Cross and follow the King who died for me, to trade armor for vulnerability, a sword for a chalice and great deeds for humble service. That was over 12 years ago, and now I am his priest forever."

— Father Jacob Bouldicker, S.J.
Father Eugene Benda Council 11468 Tipton, Iowa

"Had it not been for the faith and support of my family and friends, I would not be where I am today. Jesus has blessed me in this vocation through the support of my family, the Church and, in a special way, my brother Knights."

JOIN THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

"I love working with our brother Knights. We are working together to get to heaven."

— Father Avinash Colaco, pastor and Knight of Columbus

FOUNDED BY A PRIEST ON THE PATH TO SAINTHOOD.

The Knights of Columbus owes its existence to a dedicated young parish priest, who gathered a dozen men together in 1882.

It was a hard time for the families of his parish — and for Catholics in America.

They were beset by discrimination, hazardous working conditions and the danger of alcohol addiction.

Looking for help and security, men were joining fraternal groups at odds with the Catholic Church.

What Catholic men needed, Father Michael J. McGivney realized, was their own brotherhood: an order that would help their families and strengthen their faith.

They needed the Knights of Columbus.

Today, with 1.9 million members around the world, Knights still serve their parishes and their communities — and Venerable Father McGivney is on the path to sainthood.

Father Michael Eye, chaplain for Council 15020 at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, admires a statue of Father McGivney at the Supreme Council home office.

WE STAND WITH OUR SHEPHERDS.

Working with their pastors, K of C councils support their parishes in everything from church renovation to confirmation retreats.

And being a Knight doesn't just mean brotherhood with other Catholic men, but the additional fellowship with brother priests. Stay connected with monthly newsletters curated for chaplains, and opportunities for in-person fellowship.

- Through its Refund Support Vocations program (RSVP), 3,122 KofC councils have given $65 million to help fund vocations to the priesthood and religious life.
- Knights donated $4.8 million for dioceses and seminaries, and another $9 million for evangelization programs across the United States in the last fraternal year.
- We're dedicated to standing up for life. You'll see us at the March for Life every winter, and we've raised funds for more than 950 ultrasound machines for pro-life pregnancy care centers across the country.
- Sponsored by the Knights, the Catholic Information Service library of over 100 e-books help men grow deeper in faith and lead their families closer to God.

Knights proudly serve their parishes.

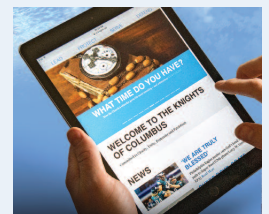

We're a brotherhood to stand behind you — and to lend a hand

A Game Changer for Prospecting for Members

Brothers,

I've just come back from the Mid-Year Meeting of State Deputies in Houston, Texas. We discussed a lot of great ideas and best practices that have the potential to make a big impact here in our jurisdiction. One that I'm really excited about is a new prospecting system that we can use for all kinds of things: church drives, men's conferences, pancake breakfasts, spaghetti dinners, fish fries - really any event where we have potential members.

We'll talk more about it at the mid-year organizational meeting, but it's a really simple process. Supreme will build a custom Prospect Landing Page for your council that you can use on a phone, a tablet or a computer. You can ask potential members if they're interested in learning more about the Knights, and you can enter their information into the form in a matter of seconds. They'll immediately get a personalized email signed by you the Grand Knight and encouraging them to join the Knights and reference your council by name and number.

The form will also auto-generate an email to you, which will give you all of the information given for each person that signs up, and it will enroll them in an email marketing campaign that will help tell them more about the Knights and what we do over time (Don't worry, they can unsubscribe at any time).

It's a great system! This can be a real game changer in the way we prospect. I would encourage every council to get out in front of this and request your own page immediately. The attached document explains it in more detail. All you need to do is go to info kofc.org/pagerequest.

If you have any questions, be sure to reach out to Matthew Mareno. He's our Online Membership Coordinator, and he'll be happy to explain this to you in more depth. He can be reached at marenom@live.com Looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Diocesan Faith Formation Youth Rally

Worthy Brother Knights,

There will be a Diocesan wide Faith Formation Youth Rally that will take place on February the 2nd in the parking lot at Holy Spirit Catholic Church/Bishop Gorman High School from 11:00am to 12:30pm and the Event Coordinator Tiffany Madsen is asking all Councils in the Las Vegas Area to help with donations of hamburgers, hot dogs and buns as well as your time in cooking.

Since all the Churches in the diocese will be participating with the youth this would be a great opportunity for Councils to be involved and for the youth to see members/fellow brothers of their community in action so far only one Council has inquired about and Brothers this is unacceptable everyone is asked to step up to this and be there for the kids our future members.

If anyone has any questions or would like to participate, please contact:
