2. Once you successfully send the text message, you will receive a reply text message asking you to text your email information to the same number (this will allow you to choose to receive messages to your email or cellphone or both). So, to complete this step, reply to the text by sending a reply message giving your email address.
- PLEASE NOTE - If your cellphone service is through T-Mobile, please try to register with Flocknote as described above. HOWEVER, some T-Mobile customers have had difficulties doing this. If that is the case with you, please go to <http://flocknote.com/knightswisc> website and follow the instructions there to sign up online.
