- Welcome New Transfers – The San Salvador Council welcomes transferring knights Thomas Love from San Jose, CA, Jason Szpak from Madison, and Dave Braun from West Bend.

- Put Your Faith in Action ... Upcoming Events to Get Involved and Make a Difference

- HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD STARTING – The Knights of Columbus have partnered with Habitat for Humanity worldwide to provide housing for the needy. In June, our Council donated $1,175 to Ozaukee County Habitat for Humanity in support of their new build in Grafton behind Sendik's. That project is breaking ground at the end of August and OCHH needs manpower for the upcoming months. If you can help at all between 8:30am – 3:30pm on Wednesdays or Saturdays, please contact them at 262-284-6880 or <https://www.ozhh.org/volunteer>. It would be great to have a team of San Salvador Knights!

- Recap of Recent Council Activities

- WHAT A WEEK AT THE FAIR! – Sincere thanks to everyone that contributed to our Ozaukee County Fair fundraiser. It was a record year for our burger stand, with revenues up 17% over our 2017 record and 23% over last year! Profits will enable our Council to do so much good and to serve the mission of Christ and His Church by helping the poor & homeless, the preborn & their mothers, veterans, the disabled, seminarians, youth and so many more. Special thanks to the following:
  - Mark Wegman for menu selection and purchasing while recovering from surgery at home.
  - Joe Willbrandt who at 90 years old still opens the fair booth every day, sweeps up, and preps for opening, in addition to working the Sunday morning shift. Joe also searches out the best beverage deals around town and personally handles all purchasing of our drink inventory.
  - Tom Berk of CKC Graphics in Grafton for donating menu boards, signs and banners.
  - Gary Fatla, John Giuliani, Joe Schulte who spent a hot Sunday afternoon moving our supplies from storage to the fairgrounds, setting up and cleaning up the booth, and working multiple shifts at the fair. And, Dan Montaine for making a last minute run for inventory pickup at US Foods on Saturday morning.
  - Several others who worked multiple shifts, including Phil Sylvester, Dennis & Michelle Fortuna, Peter Schmidt, Tom Michalski, Bryan Swift, Brian Kison, Terry Retzke, Joe Wollner, John Thielmann, and Deacon Mark Leonardelli (very sorry if I left anyone out).
  - Non-knights who volunteered to help us, including family members, parishioners, and members of the SFB Respect Life Group. We could not have done this without them!

- KC HOLY HOURS FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS - Our Council brought the “Pilgrim Icon of Our Lady, Help of Persecuted Christians” to St. Francis Borgia for veneration from July 9-16, culminating in a parish-wide Holy Hour led by Fr. Patrick and KCs. The icon was moved to St. Joe’s from July 27 – August 2, when Deacon Al and knights led a concluding Holy Hour there. Thanks to all who helped with readings, leading prayers, and handing out over 500 flyers after Masses to raise awareness and funds for persecuted Christians!
