2021 Tootsie Roll Drive Success!

The 2021 San Salvador Council Tootsie Roll Drive raised $5,200! Net proceeds will go to Special Olympics and Portal Industries to help our intellectually disabled brothers and sisters. Led by Chairman Roger Kneprath, Knights collected donations from Aug 21-29. Thanks to all who helped and to our host sites: St. Francis Borgia, St. Joseph, Piggly Wiggly, and Pick 'n Save.

A Tribute to the Preborn

Council families joined Fr. Patrick and others on September 18th at SFB South for the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, hosted by the SFB Respect Life Group. Knights provided an Honor Guard and led the Rosary for the gathering at the "Rachel Weeping" Statue, which was erected in 2012 by the San Salvador Council.

SFB Cemetery Project

Knights joined other parish members to set 170 crosses on unmarked graves at the SFB Cemetery on Pioneer Road this month. The graves were discovered a few years ago with ground-penetrating radar. In 2019, Knights held a fundraiser to place a monument marking the site where 49 unknown babies were found buried.

Pizza With Padre

On August 18th, San Salvador Council Knights of Columbus spent the evening at the rectory with our chaplain, Fr. Patrick Burns. Around 30 Knights and some guests enjoyed a casual evening of conversation and fellowship ... until the mosquitoes moved in!
