Congratulations to Council Brother Jim Michaletz and the Men of Christ Leadership Team for pulling off another great conference on March 26th for over 3,000 men in the Milwaukee Archdiocese and beyond. The St. Francis Borgia satellite session was very well attended, with over 100 attendees. The conference was promoted to the Council and over 20 San Salvador Knights attended for a day of Mass, confessions, fellowship, and spiritual renewal. Thanks to Jim and all who attended!

40 Days for Life
Lenten Campaign

San Salvador Council families joined other Knights and pro-lifers during this season's worldwide 40 Days for Life campaign. In Milwaukee, we defended life Saturday mornings at the abortion mill at 1428 N. Farwell Avenue, praying the Rosary, witnessing to the Sanctity of Life, and offering hope for moms to choose life for their babies. In the photo above, Dan Miller, president of Pro-life Wisconsin and KC State Culture of Life Director, joins our group in prayer.

KCs Lead Stations

On April 8th, the final Friday eve Lenten Stations of the Cross service at SFB was hosted and led by 13 members of the San Salvador Council. Thanks to all our volunteers!

KCs Serve at Mardi Gras Pancake Dinner

Thanks to Andy Mosko and his KC team for helping to serve a traditional Mardi Gras Pancake Feast in the SFB church hall on March 1st. Guests were treated to a tasty meal and a talk by Fr. Stephen Buting on Sacred Liturgical Music.

Easter Rosary Novena for Fr. Patrick

Knights families were invited to join in an Easter Rosary Novena for Fr. Patrick, his intentions, our parish, and our school from April 8-16. Over 50 people signed up to lift our Pastor and KC Chaplain up in prayer in thanksgiving for his priesthood and the many sacrifices he makes for the Church. Thank you, Fr. Patrick for all you do as our shepherd!
