CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Reverend Martino Choi, Parochial Vicar
St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church
E-mail: mchoi@adwparish.org Phone: 301-924-2284

Dear Brother Knights,

For the past decade or so (with an exception or two), the Archdiocese of Washington has held its priesthood ordinations over Father's Day Weekend. It's a beautiful way of emphasizing the spiritual fatherhood of priests, their role of bringing us into deeper relationships with God, and providing for our spiritual lives. This year, we are blessed to have a member of our own Fr. Peter Paul Maher Council ordained to the priesthood: soon-to-be Fr. Kevin Fields! If you are able, I strongly encourage you to attend his ordination on Saturday, June 16, at 10AM, at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

The Knights of Columbus are tremendous supporters of priestly vocations, I imagine in large part due to its founding by a parish priest, Fr. Michael McGivney. I think too that it's because the Knights of Columbus love the Church, and the Church wouldn't exist without the Eucharist, for which we need priests. As we celebrate these new priests, let us continue to pray for them, for all priests, and for more vocations to the priesthood. And of course, happy Father's Day to all our fathers!

In Christ,

Fr. Martino Choi

Motto: "Lord, direct our actions to fulfill Your will."

DISTRICT DEPUTY'S REPORT

SK Joseph F. Kremasky, District Deputy (30)
E-mail: JKremasky@gmail.com ~ Phone: 301-570-4891

St. Kevin – June 3
St. Cocca – June 6
St. Barnabas – June 11

This month, we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The term "Sacred Heart of Jesus" denotes the entire mystery of Christ, the totality of his being, and his person considered in its most intimate essential: Son of God, uncreated wisdom; infinite charity, principal of the salvation and sanctification of mankind.

Last month we elected new Maryland State Officers at our Ocean City Convention, and now the "passing of the baton" will begin with our Fraternal Leadership Training on June 30 - July 1 in the Solomon Islands, MD. A copious amount of information will be disseminated at this function for Grand Knights elect and Deputy Grand Knights elect. So, please be sure that at least one (preferably both) attends. This is also a wonderful opportunity for the wives to get acquainted with the wives of other councils.

All Grand Knights elect and their wives should have by now received an invitation to the July 7 Installation of State Officers (reception to follow). If you have not received an invitation, you should contact Jack Giacalone ASAP.

Once the fraternal year formally starts (July 1), Kevin Kennedy and I plan to have cookout/pizza mixer to introduce the other officers of District 30 and their wives (this gives me the opportunity to present MORE information).

Anytime that there is a new administration (State Deputy, Dale Trott), there is some minor shuffling within the ranks. I am sorry to announce that St. Rose of Lima - Council 13297 will no longer be a part of District 30. However, District 30 has a new council - St. John the Baptist - Council 11106. Both Kevin Kennedy and I look forward to establishing new bonds with the members of St. John the Baptist Council.

Stay tuned!!! The best is yet to come (I hope).

Vivat Jesus

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GOLF TOURNAMENT

The District 30 of the Knights of Columbus Golf Tournament originally scheduled for April 27 was rescheduled to Friday July 13 due to inclement weather. The golf tournament is organized by Montgomery and Father Peter Paul Maher Councils to raise money for the Seminarian Funds. If April 27 was a bad date for you, we hope that July 13 better fits your busy schedules. Men, ladies and mixed pairs are welcome! Sign up singly or in pairs or foursomes.

It will be a Scramble Format, with prizes for longest drive, closest to the pin and lowest score. Tee boxes will be Red for ladies, White for those 50 and older, and Blue for those 49 and younger.

The course is Laytonsville Golf Course (MCG). Registration starts at 7:30AM with coffee and light fare. Warmup balls are available on the practice range. Shotgun starts at 08:30AM. Bottled water and sports drinks will be available to take to the cart at check-in. All alcoholic beverages are on a cash basis. Luncheon afterwards includes fountain soda and featuring hot dogs and burgers.

The cost is $125 to play, $50 to be a sponsor. All Sponsor fees are tax deductible.

The $125 consists of $50 for the Seminarian funds which is tax deductible, $10 for the prize pool for the longest drive, closest to the pin and lowest team score; the remainder covers greens fee, cart, food and drinks. Mulligans can be purchased separately and used anywhere except on the greens and to win closest to the pin or longest drive.

The greens are in great shape and the weather is finally warming! To register yourself and/or your teams, please contact: Ron Herberg at (301)580-9189 or email at ronherberg@verizon.net, or Gary Palmer at (301)948-6494 or email at gtdbpalmer@verizon.net.

Payment can be made during sign-in by check or cash. Advance payments may be made on the Father Peter Paul Maher Council website: www.kofc6793.org, using your credit card or PayPal. Using this site will automatically send you a confirming email and receipt. You do not need to be a council member to use the council website.

Registration deadline is July 5 for both sponsors and players. Players and sponsors who registered for the April 27 event are already registered; thank you for your support. Please feel free to forward this email to any neighbors and friends; the more the merrier.

Thank you for supporting our Seminarian Fundraiser.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The council membership donated a little over $1500 in donations to the Council Seminarian Fund since January 2018. This donation is in addition to the council raffles and other events for the Seminarian Fund. This assures the council can receive the $1000 matching donation by an anonymous council member! This will assure we can continue "our tradition" of sponsoring 10 or more seminarians again next year! WELL DONE AGAIN!

BEYOND DISSENT

The mission of evangelization remains essential to the Church's identity today

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori

FIFTY YEARS AGO, Blessed Pope Paul VI issued Humanae Vitae. In this prophetic encyclical, the Holy Father taught that artificial birth control is not permitted because it breaks the bond between two inseparable and God-given aspects of marital love: its capacity to express the exclusive and total love of husband and wife for each other and its capacity to beget new life. The document unleashed a firestorm of criticism for maintaining a teaching allegedly made obsolete by the advent of “the pill.” The pope’s warnings that the pervasive practice of contraception would open the door to promiscuity, abortion and the breakdown of the family went unheeded. Only a small percentage accepted this teaching, and many still dissent.

In 1975, Paul VI issued another landmark document, Evangelii Nuntiandi (On Evangelization in the Modern World). In it, he tapped into the deepest root of the Second Vatican Council, which his predecessor, St. John XXIII, had convoked to proclaim Christ anew “as the center of history and of life.”

Drawing together the teaching of the council, Paul VI described evangelization as the Church’s core identity and mission. In short, the Church “exists in order to evangelize” (14). This mission is directed both toward people who have not yet heard the Good News and those who no longer practice their faith. Pope Paul called on all members of the Church, not just clergy and religious, to open their hearts more widely to the Lord and to actively share the faith with the searching and the straying alike.

At the heart of the Second Vatican Council and the pontificates that have followed is the call to proclaim Christ in our time, so that people may open their hearts to the Lord and find salvation from their sins and the path to holiness in his Church.

FROM VATICAN II UNTIL TODAY Following his predecessors, St. John Paul II called for a “new evangelization” — not new in content, for “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever” (Heb 13:8) — but new “in its ardor, methods, and expression.” He reaffirmed the Church’s mission to proclaim the Gospel, stressing the obligation of the Church to evangelize those whose faith had grown dim and to reevangelize nations where the faith is fading. St. John Paul II said no one is exempt from the duty of proclaiming the Gospel, and laypeople are the prime agents of the new evangelization.

Pope Benedict XVI likewise promoted the new evangelization. He called for “re-proposing” the Gospel in places where many no longer practice the faith and where new forms of secularism have taken hold. Pope Benedict, like those before him, emphasized that evangelization entails an opening of the heart. It involves becoming agents of the Holy Spirit, helping people have a profound experience of Jesus and his love — a love that opens them to the Word of God, the sacraments, virtuous living and ultimately their vocation to holiness.

Evangelization is also clearly central to the pontificate of Pope Francis, who penned Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel). He speaks of the urgency of this mission and calls each one of us and our parishes and church institutions to “missionary conversion” (30). He challenges bishops and priests to take the lead in creating dioceses and parishes that are on fire with the mission of spreading the Gospel. He challenges religious women and men “to wake up the world” by their witness to the kingdom of God. And he challenges laypeople to engage robustly in this mission in their families and daily work.

A NEW PENTECOST

What has been the response of the Church to this call for a new evangelization? One survey published in 2005 asked various Christian congregations whether spreading the faith is a high priority. In conservative Protestant congregations, some 75 percent answered in the affirmative; 57 percent of African-American congregations agreed. Among U.S. Catholic parishes, only 6 percent did — not exactly an enthusiastic embrace of the central thrust of the Second Vatican Council or the teaching of recent popes. Their warnings go unheeded as the number of practicing Catholics declines. This constitutes a kind of “soft” dissent, not so much from a specific teaching but rather from the Lord’s missionary mandate and from the Church’s very identity and mission. Relatively few Catholics reject outright the call to spread the Gospel; it’s more that they decline to participate, often because they themselves have not been evangelized and adequately catechized.

This month, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles. Their hearts and minds were opened so that they truly grasped who Jesus is, what he taught and what he did to save us. And they received the wisdom, strength and courage to go forth and spread the Gospel as the Lord had commanded. Their wholehearted witness to Jesus and their courageous preaching brought extraordinary results.

Let us unite in praying earnestly for a new Pentecost in our day. And the Knights of Columbus, as the world’s largest Catholic lay organization, can and should lead the way in bearing witness to and spreading the Gospel. In the power of the Spirit, let us open our hearts to Jesus, fully live his Gospel — including those teachings that are countercultural — and speak of him in love to others, so as to win them for Christ and his Church.

Vivat Jesus!
