

Bible in a Year Podcasts.

We have all read the bible. Or parts of it.

How many of us have read the whole Bible from beginning to the end and were able to understand everything that we were reading. I started listening to the Bible in a Year Podcasts and found out things that were in the Bible that I didn't realize were there.

The podcasts are about 20 minutes long and Fr. Schmitz goes chronologically through the Bible starting with Genesis and reads a couple of chapters a day. He then talks about what he has just read in simple terms to help you understand the passages you have just heard. After listening to the 365 episodes, you will be able to say you have read the whole Bible, from Genesis to Revelations, and have a better understanding of it.
